he ready response to the national to arms is regarded as encourag- and as further proof that most men are back of the new govern- ment and opposed to the Repub- lican extremists.

ications are not lacking, how- ever, that Michael Collins and his lieutenants will need all the support they can get to put down the remain- ing resistance which, according to reports from some correspondents Dublin, is of an important char- acter.

ILY TASK AHEAD
These writers say the strength of the dissenters in the south and west is greater than has been reported and declare the task of bringing this opposition is likely to be slow and costly in Cork-co.

It is predicted that the provision- al government will need to enroll soldiers to the full strength allowed by the Anglo-Irish treaty for the purpose of rounding up the guerilla bands.

The arrival in Cork harbor last night of a squadron of British war- ships lends additional color to these reports as it is believed the vessels are sent in anticipation of serious trouble in that district and possible attacks on the British naval station there.

he public is still kept guessing as to whereabouts of Eamon De Valera. The latest report, published today's Daily Mail, says he spent the night at Brittas, a hamlet eleven miles south of Dublin.

VERNMENT IN CONTROL
The Irish Midlands are now under control of the provisional government forces.

The fighting at Clonyn Castle and around House at Delvin county, Ireland, ended with the surren- der of the Republican garrisons to British forces of the free state.

A heavy load of ammunition was found in both buildings, includ- ing boxes of bombs, boxes of gal- lery, 40 revolvers and 100 rifles, as also were discovered for the truction of barracks and bridges.

to trains have yet reached West Dublin. Four weekly news- papers which are printed in Boyle and published this week.

MADE PRISONERS
DUBLIN. — (Associated Press).— approximately 700 irregulars were in prison by the national army in the struggle in Dublin which brought to a virtual close by the surrender of the remnants of the Republicans in the Sackville-st area.

Jublin today showed signs of settling down again after the prolonged period of destructive hostilities in the heart of the city. In the week's lull, Dublin lost no less than ten of her hotels and now has only less than 200 workers already been thrown out of employment as a result of the burning. One of the reasons of the return toward normal conditions was the removal today of embargo which had been put on telephone service for military and urgent calls.

Valera Chief Dies
DUBLIN. — (Associated Press).— Valera's chief lieutenant, died today in the wounds he received on Wednesday while trying to fight his way clear at the surrender of the publican garrisons in the Sackville-st area.

MENACED BY GUNS, SAYS WORKER

Imported Strikebreaker For B. & O. Signs Affidavit

FEW MEN FILL JOBS HERE

L. E. & W. Moves to Secure Men For Shop Work

BULLETIN

Fourteen negroes, some of them holding tickets from St. Louis and others from Cincinnati, to Toledo, were rounded up by strike pickets when a car was switched off train No. 56 at the B. & O. shops, Friday afternoon. They were taken to police headquarters by the strikers, who appealed to Chief of Police Lanker asking that they be ordered out of the city. Lanker refused to have anything to do with the matter.

Guns in the hands of private detectives who unloaded men shipped into this city to fill places made vacant by striking B. & O. shopmen, forced them to get off a train at the coal dock in the railroad yards here early Friday morning, according to an affidavit signed by John Moore, Cincinnati, one of the members of party imported here.

Strike pickets who met the train as it began discharging the imported workers took Moore with four other men, to their headquarters where Moore is said to have signed the affidavit.

RETURNS TO CINCINNATI

He was furnished with a return ticket to Cincinnati by the union men, who urged him to do what he could to stop further migration of men from that city to points along the B. & O. where strikebreakers are sought.

Moore's affidavit declared that he and about 25 of his comrades were to work in the B. & O. shops and that they were told that the strike was over. Upon arriving in Lima on train No. 58, he discovered that the strike was not over, and he desired to leave, the affidavit says.

He was not permitted to leave the train, however, when it arrived at the depot, but was forced to stay in the locked car until the train reached the B. & O. shops, the affidavit re- cites.

When they arrived there, he charges, the men were unloaded by private detectives at the point of guns.

OTHERS JOIN STRIKERS

Striking shopmen announced Friday morning that approximately 25 unaffiliated workers at the B. & O. joined their ranks late Thursday and early Friday. Fire knockers, engine men, fire-up men, cinder pit men and lubricators, they claim, were added to their lists.

rumors to the effect that train- men were walking out at various points within this vicinity were current Friday. No confirmation of these reports could be had, however. Strikers were of the opinion that the rumors started as the result of the refusal of some of the trainmen to perform the duties of shopmen on strike.

FEW TAKE JOBS

The men reported to have been brought into Lima early Friday morning to replace striking shopmen at the B. & O. were variously distributed over a territory sur- rounding this city, strike headquar- ters report.

Some of them succeeded in getting into the B. & O. shops on E. McKibben-st. Others are reported to have accompanied strikers to head- quarters on the Public-gs while still others are said to have kept right on moving after a little urging on the part of Lima shopmen doing picket duty there.

Word from the B. & O. shops early Friday morning declared that there were new men at work there, but the exact number was not given out.

Strikers report that the machine and car repair shops are idle.

STRIKERS MEET MEN

Shortly after learning that a number of men were coming into Lima for work at the B. & O. shops, a delegation of strikers gathered to greet them. When the train pulled in early Friday morning, the strike- breakers were discharged at the coal dock, strikers report. Simultane- ously with the arrival of the train, a request was entered at police headquarters by B. & O. officials for additional protection. One man was detailed to the railway yards.

He reported no serious trouble. Strikers declare they induced some of the men to remain on the train, while others accompanied them to headquarters. A number of others, they say, made their way to North Lima, with Union men at their heels. They disappeared, the strikers said.

The general chairman of the Lima allied crafts, Friday morning, laughed at the incident. He de- clared that the railroad were being "gypped" by the men who are ac- cepting their offers of jobs.

"Why half of those men who ac- cept the transportation given them by the railroad keep right on moving thru the towns where they are supposed to work?" he declared.

He also charged the railroads with telling some of the men whom they hired that they were wanted for sale today.

WIFE ACCUSES EVANGELIST

Charges have been made against Melvin E. Trotter, superintendent of the Grand Rapids, Mich., rescue mission, in a suit for separate maintenance brought by his wife, Lottie M. Trotter, in Grand Rapids. The principal charge concerns the parentage of a child born to the evangelist's secretary. Trotter claims his wife's charges are the result of mental disorders. Pictures above show Trotter and his wife.

BONUS PROMISED

McCumber Declares Congress Will Pass Bill This Session

WASHINGTON. — (Associated Press).—"There will be no adjournment of congress until the soldiers' compensation bill has been made a law. It will be taken up and dis- posed of under a special agreement as soon as the tariff bill is passed."

This promise was made today by Senator McCumber of North Dakota, chairman of the finance com- mittee, to Mrs. H. R. Smith of Whit- man, Mass., who delivered a third petition bearing a million signa- tures for enactment by congress of the soldiers' bonus bill. Mrs. Smith, dressed in the uniform of the Salva- tion Army, was accompanied by a score of wounded veterans from the Walter Reed general hospital, when she presented the memorial.

"It's heavy and certainly has some weight," said Senator Mc- Cumber, as he grasped the bundle. "We hope it will have some weight in the senate," Mrs. Smith responded.

"It will," the senator replied.

WARRANT AGAINST UNION OFFICIALS IS ISSUED

TOPEKA, Kansas — A state war- rant was issued today against T. Huntington, president, and Thomas Hillery, secretary of the Federated Shop Crafts union number eleven of Topeka, charging violation of the Kansas industrial court act in issu- ing the strike order which resulted in the walkout of shop men in the Santa Fe shops here July 1.

WAR RULE MAY BE PUT ON COAL

Revival of Policies to Conserve Fuel Considered

RESULT OF MINE STRIKE

Harding Formulating Plan For Public's Protection

(BY HERBERT W. WALKER)

COLUMBUS — (United Press) — Fearing that the nation-wide mine strike cannot be settled soon, Presi- dent Harding is formulating a plan for protecting the public against the menace of the fuel shortage now de- veloping, it was learned from sources close to the executive, as he left here today for Washington.

A virtual revival of the policies of conserving fuel put into effect by the fuel administration during the war is being considered. Even more drastic action would be taken should the public interest demand it, according to an administration spokesman.

PRIORITY PLAN

Under the plan priority rights to obtain coal would be given to those users of fuel upon whom the life of the people depend. First would come the government, the railroads and the public utilities then the es- sential industries, the private users of fuel and finally the non-essential industries.

A nation-wide appeal for the conservation of coal similar to those made during the war, would be made. Although the situation is not yet acute because of the summer season, ship- ments of coal to New England and other points in the northern part of the country are far below normal and a shortage is feared in these localities. Seizure of coal in the mines by the government is a possibility, should the situation become serious.

The question of protecting the public against a fuel shortage as well as the government's next move to bring an agreement between the op- erators and miners, now meeting in Washington, has been discussed by the president at length with Attorney General Daugherty.

It is understood that a proposal probably will be made to the war- ring factions early next week.

MINERS ENJOINED

COLUMBUS — (United Press) — After hearing allegations of violence at the hands of striking miners, Federal Judge Sater issued restraining orders against miners in Belmont and Perry-co.

Miners and mine officials were re- strained from interfering with op- erations or intimidating employees of strip mines of the Wayne Coal Com- pany near Staatsville, Perry-co., and of the Katherine coal stripping cor- poration, Uniontown, Belmont-co. A hearing on a permanent injunction of the Wayne Company will be held Saturday. Officials of the Katherine Company, will have a hearing before Judge Donahue, Cincinnati, on their plea for an injunction.

Arguments for a permanent in- junction for the Consolidated Coal and Coke Company, Perry-co., will be heard today. One man was killed and several wounded, July 4, in an attack of miners on their camp.

MINERS SEEK TO RESUME WORK

CHICAGO — (Associated Press).—Action in two coal fields looking toward a resumption in work has been taken by miners, it was learned here today.

Opposition members of the Illi- nois executive committee, United Mine Workers, let it be known that President Frank Farrington, at a secret meeting yesterday in Spring- field had negotiated a separate wage agreement and it was learned that in Kansas the followers of Alexander Howat are seeking work in the mines.

Mr. Farrington denied any move for a wage agreement with Illinois operators, but his opponents of the committee said Farrington had been granted authority to deal with the operators after he told the com- mittee the operators-miners' con- ference in Washington probably would fail and the government contem- plated intervention in the strike.

The plan it, it was said, to call a state convention if the government announces intervention, and vote on a resolution calling for a referendum on whether to come to terms with mine owners.

The Howat followers, who were fed for a long time by the Illinois miners after Howat was expelled from the international union, and who are supposed to have no stand- ing in the present strike, have al- ready named the committees to treat with their former employers. The Kansas strike began before the national strike and was outlawed by John L. Lewis, international president of the mine workers, and a new union installed.

G. O. P. HARMONY, HARDING'S PLEA

President Addresses Columbus Club—Leaves for Washington

COLUMBUS. — (Associated Press)

With Uniontown, Pa., as his prob- able destination for the night, Presi- dent Harding left here early today on the second lap of his automobile journey from Marion to Wash- ington. The presidential party expected to follow the National road with a stop at New Concord, Ohio, where an honorary degree of doctor of laws was to be conferred on the presi- dent by Muskingum College.

A twenty-hour stopover in Colum- bus offered Mr. Harding the op- portunity last night in an extempore address at an open air ban- quet celebrating the fiftieth anniv- ersary of the Columbus Republic- an Club, to make a vigorous appeal for party solidarity. Too many in the Republican ranks are attempting to attract attention to themselves in- stead of working for the good of the party and their country, he contin- ued, with an added remark that it is imperative for some one to assume leadership if harmony is to prevail.

The president was made a life member of the club, which has sung in his support in a number of political campaigns, at the celebration last night.

AIRMAN IS KILLED

U. S. Army Plane is Wrecked at Selfridge Field

DETROIT. — (Associated Press).— A sharp turn, made in an effort to avoid striking a hangar, led to the death of Captain George C. Tinsley, 26, of the army air service, who crashed to earth with a plane while flying at Selfridge Field, Mount Clemens, late yesterday th motor- cycling during the maneuver, accord- ing to an unofficial report from the field today.

The craft fell 150 feet and burst into flames as it struck the ground. The flier was dead when spectators succeeded in extinguishing the fire. Captain Tinsley saw service with the American expeditionary forces in France and had recently been at- tached to the office of the chief of air service in Washington.

Clashes In Rail Walkout Break Out In Five States—Troops Requested In Alabama, Kansas, Missouri and Iowa—Soldiers Mobilized In Illinois

Attempts Made by Mobs to Burn Homes at Chicago—Attackers Include Many Women—Road Chiefs Still Hopeful of Early Peace, However

CHICAGO. — (Associated Press).—With E. M. Jewell, head of the striking railway shop crafts, still maintaining the concilia- tory attitude he assumed after the strike was under way, but de- clining to make the first move towards negotiations for peace, an increasing number of outbreaks and disorders marked the clos- ing hours of the first week since shop men thruout the country walked off the jobs last Saturday.

Federal injunctions restraining strikers from interfering with railroad operations, molesting workers and unlawfully picketing shops, were issued at East St. Louis, Illinois, and Shreveport, La.

Mobilization of state troops was ordered by Adjutant General Black of Illinois following disturbances in the Wabash yards at Decatur. The governors of Alabama, Kansas, Missouri and Iowa were asked to send troops to scenes of disorders.

Chicago in the past twenty-four hours, experienced its first out- breaks of violence in connection with the strike. A mob of strikers and sympathizers which included many women, attacked and attempt- ed to burn the homes of two Illi- nois Central employees at Burnside, who refused to join the walkout. Police dispersed the mob after Mrs. Julia Gabel, 69, wife of one of the Illinois Central men, held the at- tackers at bay with a revolver when they attempted to storm her home.

Picketing of railroad shops con- tinued in numerous parts of the country and several arrests were made in connection with picketing and disorders.

Despite numerous outbreaks by strikers there was a general impres- sion in rail circles that the trend of the strikers was toward peace.

NEW MEN EMPLOYED

Railroads continued to employ new men to take the jobs left by strikers and the ultimatum to re- turn to work next week or forfeit all seniority and pension rights stood effective in shops thruout the country.

Strikers were reported at various points to be straggling back to the old jobs in uncertain numbers but these reports reflected no weakness in statements from union head- quarters where it was said the strike was virtually 100 per cent effective.

Mr. Jewell exhibited telegrams from women's auxiliaries of shop crafts organizations expressing sup- port of the strike. He announced al- so the first sympathetic walkout by exhibiting messages informing him that 2,500 moulders employed on the railroads had joined the ranks of strikers.

STRIKERS' DELAY OF MAILS

WASHINGTON. — (Associated Press).—Postoffice department of- ficials said today no further reports requested by interference with the movement of United States mails by striking railway workers had been received since alleged strikers at- tempted to hinder the movement of mail trains in Missouri and Louisi- ana Wednesday.

Strike disturbances at Chaffee and Slater, Missouri, which threatened to retard the movement of the mails several days ago ceased, the depart- ment said, when President Kern, of the St. Louis and San Francisco rail- way appealed to the governor of Missouri and the sheriff of the county in which the towns are lo- cated, to prevent further trouble.

The Brotherhood of Trainmen, lodge number 655, at Chaffee, today telegraphed the department denying that any member of their lodge had participated in any move that would have delayed the proper handling of mail matter at that town.

In several Mississippi towns some delay in the movement of the mails, due to general strike conditions, was reported but only two cases of ac- tual interference with mail trains have been reported thus far, one at Marshall, Texas, and the other at Dequincy, La.

The department of justice has been requested by the postoffice depart- ment to take such action as may be necessary to prosecute those respon- sible for the interference with the mails at these points.

STRIKE ULTIMATUM

BOSTON. — (Associated Press).—Members of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees employed on the New York, New Haven and Hartford, Boston and Albany and the Boston and Maine roads, have voted to send an ultimatum to the general officers of the organization in Detroit demand- ing an increased wage by August. The alternative would be a strike.

The vote was taken following the reading of a report that similar ac- tion was being taken by employees of all roads in the country affected by a wage cut ordered by the railway labor board.

STRIKERS RETURNING

PITTSBURGH. — (Associated Press).—The Pennsylvania railroad today reported numbers of striking shopmen returning to work at eight points in the Pittsburgh district and the employment of 200 new men to take the places of strikers. The largest gain was at Pitcairn, where 36 strikers returned to the shops. It was added that additional work- men had been taken on at Twenty- eighth-st., Pittsburgh passenger yards Mahoningtown, Verona, Cone- maugh, Youngwood and South Side. Passenger and freight traffic is nor- mal, the officials declared.

Baltimore and Ohio represent- atives announced that a camp of shop workers had been established in the Smithfield district of the Con- nellsville coke region and that they expected immediate improvement in coal shipments from there.

SHOPS PICKETED BY OHIO WOMEN

COLUMBUS — (United Press) — A "women's and children's crusade," aimed at the morale of the strike breakers was launched here today by relatives of the 2,000 striking shop men of the Pennsylvania lines.

The women, some carrying babies in their arms, last night picketed the shops at this strike-breakers, who were busily filling the vacancies made by strike of their husbands, fathers and sweethearts, made their exit.

The Pennsylvania shops which have been operating on a 12-hour sched- ule since the strike began, will be the center of nightly "taunting parties" until the strike is ended, the women declared.

Children, tagging at their mothers' heels, last night pointed pudgy fin- gers at the existing strike breakers and shouted the name of "scab."

"We won't be violent," said Mrs. Emma Berkovich, a member of the picketing party, "but our husbands need work and we want these scabs to see that they are robbing us."

"Yes, we women are behind our husbands in this strike. We know they are right."

Mrs. Berkovich charged repre- sentatives of the road had called upon women members of strikers' families in an effort to induce them, to sign petition calling upon the strikers to return to work. Extra police guards, altho not called into action by any disorders, have ar- ranged to patrol the shop districts every night during the crusade.

FARMER WOUNDED BY RIFLE BALL

Accidentally Shoots Self in Side While Hunting Rats

Willard Jeffner, 35, farmer, resid- ing nine miles from Lima on the Sandusky-rd, northeast of Lima, ac- cidentally shot and seriously wounded himself early Friday morn- ing, while hunting rats.

He was rushed to City hospital by Walter Huff, a neighbor. Jeffner, able to talk despite the fact that the bullet entered his left side, just below the ribs, said "I could not explain the accident."

He declared that he has gone into the chicken yard at the rear of his home, to rid it of rats that had been bothering his chickens. A target rifle of 22 calibre, was the weapon he used. The gun was discharged in some manner, the bullet entering his side.

Huff, hearing the shot, rushed to Jeffner's aid, summoned physicians and was advised to take the victim to the Lima hospital.

Hether is married and has five children.

QUESTIONS ASKED

Women of Ohio Seek Position of Candidates

COLUMBUS — (United Press).— Questionnaires are being sent out from the Ohio League of Women Voters' headquarters here today, in an effort to bring out the positions of candidates for various offices.

Candidates for seats in the United States senate are asked if they favor this country taking the lead in an international cooperative movement to prevent war, passage of a bill granting full citizenship to mar- ried women, adequate appropriation for the children's bureau and federal aid in the abolition of illiteracy.

STRIKERS GIVEN $100,000

NEW YORK — The Ladies' Garment Workers' Union today dumped $100,000 into the war chest of strik- ing coal miners.

The announcement of the gift was made following a conference be- tween members of the union, Presi- dent Gompers of the American Fed- eration of Labor and John L. Lewis, president of the Mine Workers of America.

WOMAN SCORNFUL BRINGS CRASH

$4,000,000 Brokerage Failure
Results From Love Affair

10,000 INVESTORS HARD HIT

Revenge Forces Stock Exchange
Firm to Wall

(BY ALEXANDER HERMAN)
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—(Special)
—Scorned by the man she loved for seven years, a beautiful young woman became his nemesis and brought about the downfall of Edward M. Fuller, from millionaire Wall Street operator to a bankrupt!

More than 10,000 investors were carried down in the crash; more than $4,000,000 was lost.

But Nellie Black has her revenge. "He's down now where he was before I helped him get up," she says with dark eyes flashing, "and I'm glad—so glad."

It was her first interview since the announcement of the failure of the brokerage firm of E. M. Fuller & Co., largest member of the Consolidated Stock Exchange. Among their clients were thousands of women. Experts say they will be lucky to get five cents on the dollar.

REVENGE RISES
"Of course, I'm sorry for these guiltless victims," Miss Black went on, "but when I think of his going to the wall, beaten and humiliated, all other thoughts vanish."

"I met him when I was 19. I had worked as a clerk in a tobacco factory, and then got a job in a photographer's studio on Fifth Avenue. A movie director saw me there. He gave me an engagement with his company."

"I was young, full of life, romantic. Fuller was 20 years older, well built and full of dash. We were introduced at the Hotel Knickerbocker."

"A few days later I got a phone call. Fuller had been hurt in an accident. He asked if I wouldn't come up and nurse him."

"I went. He lived in a small two-room apartment. He was poor."

FASCINATING PATIENT
"We fell in love. I was crazy about him. He was so gentle, clever, fascinating. I was so young. He went into business together with William F. McGee."

"They made a go of it. Soon they cleaned up millions in oil. We were so happy. I kept house in the city. For the holidays we would run down to Atlantic City. Fuller was a good spender. Ten thousand dollars was like pin money to him."

"But soon things changed. Miss Black's eyes closed. Then they opened—a little narrowed. He began to grow restless," she continued. "He stayed away days at a time. I was frantic at first. But then I got used to it—it had to be."

"Sometimes we patched it up. Then everything would be lovely. We would go to the finest resorts. I remember the last trip. We went to Hot Springs, Ark., in a private car."

"But the pleasant times became rare. COMMON LAW WIFE
"One day I found out that he had been married and that his wife had won a divorce. I was shocked. I had always considered myself as his common law wife."

"I started court action. Fuller asked me to stop. He sent a mutual friend to patch the matter up. "I was not to see him again. But one night I received a phone call that he was ill and wanted me to come to him. I went. There in the presence of friends he humiliated me."

"I began to hate him. TURNS LOVE TO HATRED
"Some difficulty about a lease brought me to his office. Instead of listening to me, he called a policeman and had me arrested!"

"The magistrate reprimanded Fuller's lawyer when he heard my side of the story. "But I couldn't forget—the ignominy of it all. I couldn't forget that the man with whom I had lived for seven years should have humiliated me so!"

"My love turned to hate. "I helped my lawyer, George R. Simpson, dig up an old indictment against Fuller that had been sleeping for two years."

"The next day came the crash—"It was on my birthday. "It was the best present I could have had!"

Fuller has refused to discuss Miss Black, or the law suit for breach of promise she has instituted, which is pending against him. "He merely has said, "She is entitled to the usual consideration given a woman."

Captain Strick Goes to Chicago for Alleged Embezzler

Police Captain George Strick left for Chicago early Friday for final efforts in an attempt to return to this city J. C. Atkinson, former Sunday school superintendent at Christ Episcopal church, charged with embezzling funds of the Farmer and Franklin printing companies, in connection with the publication of a church bulletin.

Police have sought since March to return Atkinson from Chicago, where he fled shortly before the charge was placed against him. Postponements, first on a hearing on application for extradition, then on habeas corpus proceedings in Chicago courts, blocked them on six occasions. The last tentative date for hearing was set for the middle of July.

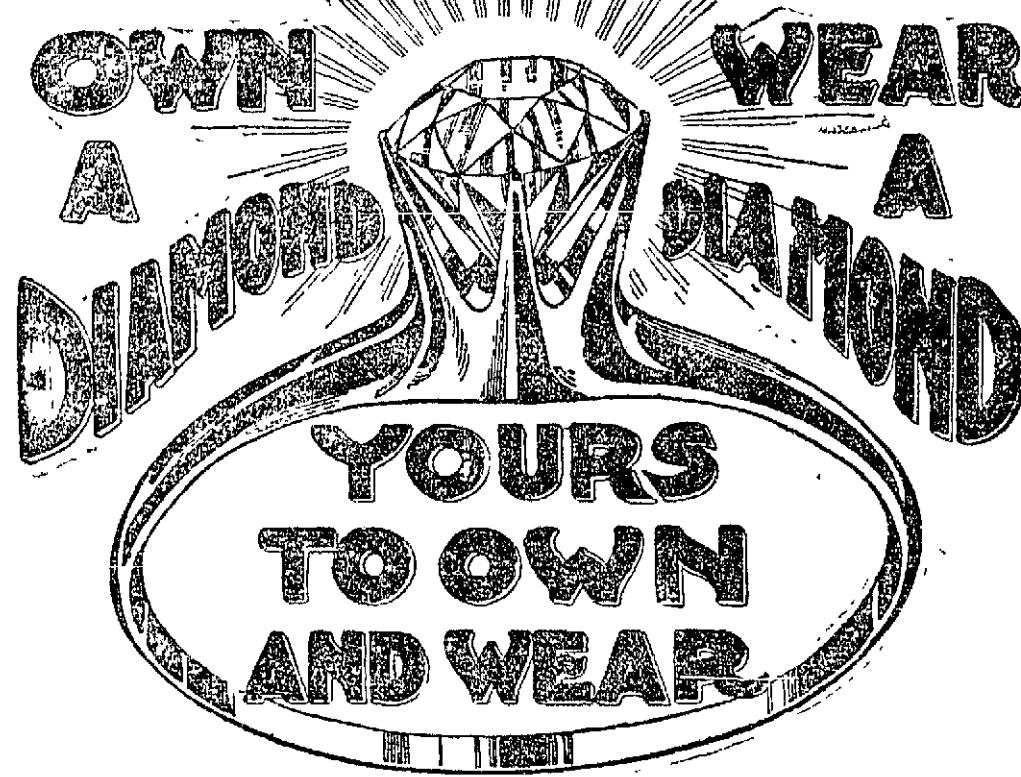

Funds Atkinson is alleged to have embezzled total more than $200, police say.

HEALTH GUARDED BY WASHING AIR

Cleansing Apparatus Installed
In Finest Buildings

NEW VENTILATING SYSTEM

Impurities Are Removed by Use of Water

CHICAGO—(Associated Press).—All of the finest new buildings have installed in them apparatus for washing the air that passes thru their ventilating systems.

Chemically pure air consists of about twenty-one per cent of oxygen, about seventy-eight per cent of nitrogen, and about one per cent of an inactive gas called argon. Air is a mixture and not a compound; consequently the percentage of any one of these gases can be increased or decreased, but the above percentages are the ones which normally occur.

In the city air is generally about six or seven parts of carbon dioxide to ten thousands parts of air, in the country about three parts to the same amount, and in audience rooms about fifty parts. Carbon dioxide comes from the combustion of coal and wood, and from the decay of vegetable and animal matter. It is exhaled by animals.

REFUSE FROM STREETS
There is always some dust in the air, the particles can be seen in a beam of sunlight crossing a room. Bits of clay, limestone, coal dust, and refuse from the streets are caught up by the wind and carried into houses. Even minute strands of cotton, linen, and hair get into the air. But the most objectionable of all are such organic particles as pollen grains, the spores of fungi, and molds, bacteria, and other microscopic organisms. It is these latter that cause the trouble in exposed food, and that have made necessary a good deal of food legislation. It is because of these impurities that washing the air is deemed necessary. Washing gets rid of practically all of them. Carbon dioxide is a gas which is readily soluble in water, and it is the greatest offender. Dust and other particles are easily removed.

MARRIAGE WITH YANKS SOUGHT BY PRINCESSES

GENEVA, Switzerland. — "Two royal princesses, sisters aged 23 and 26, desire friendship and eventually marriage, after mutual tests, with English or American gentlemen, who must be young, wealthy, and handsome, especially not upstarts or newly rich," reads an advertisement in an Innsbruck newspaper. "The princesses who belong to the old royalty are accomplished but very poor. The gentlemen must give full details and reference. A meeting could be arranged for August."

OPEN DELPHOS PAPER MILL.
DELPHOS — Orders have been received here from the main offices of the Hinde & Bauch Paper Co. at Sandusky, for the reopening of the Delphos plant. The mill has been closed for a year and a half. Men are preparing the plant for operation. A force of 35 men will be employed.

JOHN W. THOMAS, well-known insurance man of Wilmington, Del., who declares Tanlac promptly overcame his stubborn stomach trouble and run-down condition following two attacks of influenza. Gains weight and now feels fine.

"The flu left me in such a run-down condition life was miserable and work a burden," declared John W. Thomas, well-known insurance man, 609 Tenth St., Wilmington, Del., in a recent statement regarding Tanlac.

"Twice I was a victim of the flu," he continued, "the last time about two years ago, and since then I suffered from stomach trouble, nervousness and dizzy spells. After eating, gas on my stomach worked up through my chest and made my heart beat so fast it alarmed me and I nearly smothered. I could never get a good night's sleep and got up mornings with a mean taste in my mouth and all tired out. "Other medicines seemed to do me harm instead of good, but three bottles of Tanlac rid me of indigestion, the nervousness and dizziness. My sleep is restful and I am feeling like a different man. Tanlac is certainly great!"

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

SPAYD MADE DEFENDANT IN $125 SUIT FOR COAL

Spayd is an officer of the coal concern and as such is said to have given the Smoky City fuel corporation a note in the amount named in payment for coal.

Co-defendant in the case is S. B. Klefeker.

Experts Wrangle Over Proper Means of Giving Aid

SAWYER'S STAND OPPOSED

American Legion Will Seek Time Limit Amendment

By HARRY B. HUNT
WASHINGTON — (Special) — Vital differences in viewpoint have been responsible for the deadlock that has delayed providing hospitals for disabled ex-service men. Chief among these are:

ONE Disagreement as to future hospital requirements.

TWO Conflict over hospitalizing men suffering from mental disorders or tuberculosis in hospitals.

THREE Period within which mental or tubercular ailments attributable to army service may develop.

FOUR When the peak of the hospital load may be expected.

Government hospitals developed during the war and immediately thereafter were located, designed and equipped primarily with a view to maximum efficiency in treating general medical and surgical cases.

The bulk of patients now requiring hospitalization, however, are either tubercular or mental cases.

MOST PATIENTS HAVE TUBERCULOSIS

Of 18,266 veteran patients in the government's 99 hospitals, on June 1, 1922, there were 7931 listed as tubercular, 4675 as neuro-psychiatric or mental cases, and 5660 as general or surgical.

In addition 9038 men were distributed among 1271 state and private asylums, homes, sanitariums, infirmaries, etc. Of these 4567 were mental cases.

Men committed to state and private asylums and institutions receive, for most part, only "custodial care," which means bed and board and a roof over their heads. They receive no treatment or nursing or special care designed to check or cure their mental sickness.

In government hospitals, the most skilled and scientific psychiatrists direct the treatment and care of the men.

In addition to the 4567 mental cases farmed out to non-government institutions, there are also cared for in contract hospitals at government expense, 2911 tubercular veterans and 1569 general and surgical cases.

Present figures show, constitute three-fourths of the cases now being hospitalized.

SAWYER APPROVES PRESENT HOSPITALS

General Charles E. Sawyer, personal physician to the president and head of the Federal Board of Hospitalization, holds the view that existing hospitals, to the extent of their bed capacity, are satisfactory places for the treatment of the tubercular and insane men.

And as there are now more than 600 vacant beds in the government's 99 hospitals, he believes these should be utilized before additional millions are spent in providing new hospitals specially designed for tubercular and mental cases. For these views he has won the support of President Harding.

Opposed to this theory, however, are the recommendations of Dr. Thomas W. Salmon, Dr. W. A. White and other noted authorities who have advised on hospital needs.

Not just hospitalization, but hospitalization in a climate and an environment that will assist nature and the physicians to arrest the disease or effect a cure in the largest possible percentage of cases is the time need, these experts have maintained.

PREPARES 1000 FOR MINISTRY

MRS. MORRIS

"The little minister maker" is the title Texas people use to describe Hope Pinbrook Morris.

Because under her tutelage 1000 Texans are being prepared for the ministry and for missionary work and thousands more, scattered throughout the world, already have been prepared.

She is more technically known as the recruiting superintendent of the Texas Christian Endeavor Association.

Recently she ushered one of her students into another field—the field of matrimony.

Until a fortnight ago she was Hope Pinbrook. Then she married Fred Morris, a medical student at Galveston. When he is graduated they will go to South America as missionaries.

that the peak of hospitalization requirements has been reached it not already passed.

There is a calling off in applications for admission he has stated, which together with the 8000 beds now empty in existing hospitals provides a reasonable margin for future necessities.

American Legion officials, however, following a survey in the 14 rehabilitation districts, declare thousands of men are declining to apply for hospitalization and are being cared for in their homes because proper new hospitals have not been provided.

A total of 24,506 mental cases alone from four districts is reported, with an estimated total in the country of close to 125,000.

Medical experts familiar with the development of war neuroses have placed the date of the probable peak in hospitalization needs as 1925. Director C. R. Forbes of the Veterans Bureau says it probably will be reached by 1926.

The American Legion already has served notice that it will make a fight for amendment of the law which fixes two years after discharge as the legal limit within which active tuberculosis must develop in order to be rated as traceable to service.

This barrier has resulted in the rejection of hundreds of claims of ex-service men suffering from tuberculosis.

FLORIDA ROMANCE ENDS IN DIVORCE COURT HERE

A matrimonial alliance, which marked the culmination of a romance in sunny Florida, came to a disastrous finish Friday when Mrs. Florence Flynn instituted divorce proceedings against Peter Flynn in common pleas court.

Her action marked the close of 16 years of stormy marital life, the petition states. They were married in Hampton, Florida, in 1906. Three years ago Flynn deserted his mate, she says, and she does not know where he is at present. There is one child Lewis, whose care and custody the mother requests will be awarded to her.

appearance. I thought I would have to give up my "reach-California-on-foot-or-die" program. Hearing about the wonders of Gypsy Foot Relief, I obtained a box and applied it that afternoon, and that night, and the next morning, and to my surprise, my feet felt as if they had new life; the burning and aches had ceased, the soreness had gone and the pains from corns and bunions had disappeared as if by magic. I started on my long hike again and now that I have some Gypsy Foot Relief, I am sure I will reach Los Angeles without any more foot troubles or misery.

NOTE:—Gypsy Foot Relief, mentioned by Mrs. Doyer, is a secret from the desert. Applied in a minute, relief comes a few minutes later. The awful pains from burning, calloused feet, corns, and bunions seem to disappear as if by magic! No bother to apply—no plasters—no powders—no soaking feet in medicated baths—no fuss! Simply apply it as directed, then put on your shoes and walk, run or dance as long as you wish or work and stay on your feet as long as you like! So remarkable are the reports of Gypsy Foot Relief from different parts of the country, that the makers guarantee successful results in every case—or you get back the little it costs! It is sold in this city by all good druggists, including Hunter's 3 Stores, Public Drug Store, and Red Cross Drug Store—Adv.

BIDS INVITED ON STREET PAVING

Improvement of 13 Thorofares Planned For Summer

OTHERS TO BE ADDED LATER

Contracts Totalling $160,000 to be Awarded

Bids on 13 street paving projects necessitating the laying of 24,441 square yards of pavement and costing approximately $160,000, were asked by Vaughn Miller, city engineer, Friday.

Bids are returnable at noon, Central standard time July 21, at the office of the city manager. Work will be started by August 1 and the contracts finished by early fall, Miller plans.

Streets affected are: Hazel-av, Metcalf to Baxter-sts; Vine-st, Pine-st to Reese-av; West-st, Wayne-st to Pennsylvania-av; O'Connor-st, Main-st to West-st; Lowell-av, Woodlawn to Judkins-av; Lakewood-av, Nixon to Woodlawn-av.

Wendell-av, Woodlawn to Nixon-av; Collett-st, Richie to Delphos-av; Hazel-av, Jameson-av to Cole-st; Hazel-av, McDonel to Metcalf-st; Spring-st, Jameson-av to Cole-st; Leland-av, Charles-st to Woodward-av, and Wayne-st, Jameson-av to Cole-st.

Bids are requested on all types of paving, but the final choice will probably be brick or asphalt, as much opposition is seen to a tar street and wood block is too expensive, officials say.

MORE TO COME

Bids will be asked on four additional streets within the next 10 days or two weeks, Miller believes. These will require 14,228 square yards of paving and cost in the neighborhood of $70,000 he said.

These streets are: College-av, Richie to Hite-av; High-st Collett to Cole-st; Elizabeth-st Murphy-st to O'Connor-av and Hazel-av, Delphos-av to Jameson-av.

If bids are asked for in 10 days they will be returnable inside of a month and work can be completed on these streets before the snow flies, Miller believes.

These new street improvements will do much to lift Lima out of the mud and will open up many desirable residence locations to the workers of Lima, Miller anticipates.

Other street projects will in all probability be held over until next year. Among these is the Main-st project, the water and gas mains for which are now being laid or repaired.

JUDGES DISCUSS VALENTINO CASE

Furnishes Points in Debate at Cedar Point Meet

CEDAR POINT.—(United Press).

—Marital troubles of Rudolph Valentino, perfect lover of the movies, were mooted points in debates before the Ohio Common Pleas Judges Association here today.

Marriage and divorce, in many cases is the greatest ill, declared Judge Frank W. Geiger, Springfield. Marriage licenses should be published several weeks in advance of the actual tying ceremony, the judge said.

Other reforms requisite to curbing the flapper marriage advocated by delegates to the convention were:

1—Courts should have power to delay remarriage after divorce.

2—Marriage laws should be more uniform but not federal. If married in one state, a couple should be just as securely married in all other states.

3—County probation officers should be given power to pass on application for licenses by minors. The association took a stand against the plan of federal marriage and divorce laws as advocated by the federation of women's clubs in Chautauqua, N. Y., recently.

KICKED BY HORSE, MAN IS SERIOUSLY INJURED

C. S. Bradford, 673 S. Union-st suffered an injured leg, when a horse, hitched to a wagon in which he was riding, kicked him. The wagon crowded the horse on an incline and the animal began kicking furiously. Bradford was painfully injured. The accident occurred at Reese-av and the Erie Railroad. Bradford was removed to his home in an ambulance.

ROUND-UP OF ALLEGED POSTAL ROBBERS — HEAVY MARBLE CHAMP — NEWS PHOTOS

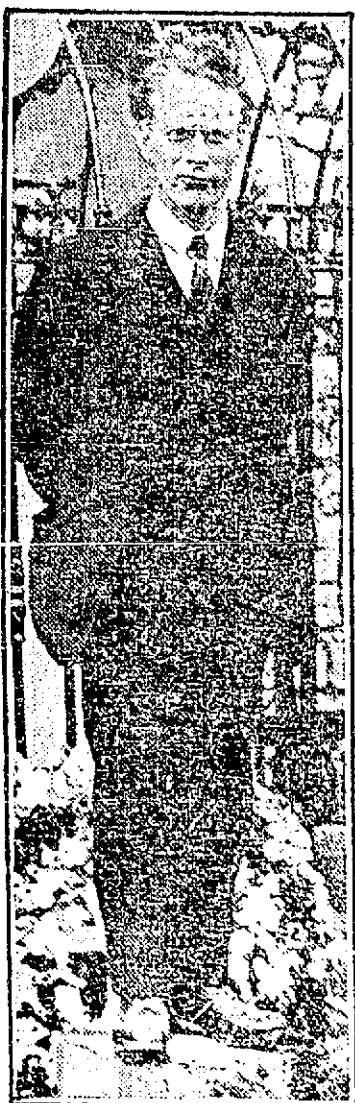

ARREST OF MEN CHARGED WITH THEFT OF POSTAL MILLIONS—Postoffice officials believe they have rounded up the leading figures in the series of postal robberies occurring in many cities throughout the nation in the past year in the arrest of Charles Lambert, Charles Helms and Edward Bryce in New York. Police say $100,000 recovered is part of the $2,000,000 loot taken from a New York mail truck last October. Left to right, Detective Stepat, Lambert, Detective Kiley, Helms, Detective O'Brien and Bryce.

SURVEYS CITY BY PLANE—Victor Staheli (left), city engineer of Redondo Beach, Cal., accompanied by Hugh Pomeroi, secretary of the Redondo Chamber of Commerce, studies city from air to lay out new highways. He's the first city engineer to use a plane as a regular part of his equipment.

DESERTED AT THE TABLE—This big boy was on the round table. Just half thru his course. Then the walk-out of rail shop men went into effect in Chicago. And there he is, waiting for someone to finish the job.

REBELS' SHIRINE—Irish republicans make pilgrimage to the grave of Wolf Tone, republican leader, in County Kildare. Here's General Liam Mellows, figure in the fighting at Four Courts, Dublin, speaking at the grave.

WRECK HEROINE—When news that a train had been derailed at Winslow Junction, N. J., killing nine and injuring 75, reached Margaret Loughman, Hammonton phone operator, she quickly summoned physicians and fire companies, greatly aiding rescue work.

A NEW HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMP—Ed Linn, heavyweight champion marble shooter of Oakland, Cal., knuckles down "bony tight" in the first marble-shooting tournament for grown-ups held in the United States.

FLAPPER REVOLUTION FOR CHINA—Sailing from Seattle for China, Nora and Rose Hsiung, daughters of former Premier Hsiung Hsi-ling, say they'll start the demure maidens of China on the way to flapperism. They're students at Holyoke (Mass.) College.

TAFT GRATEFUL TO ENGLAND

Receives Splendid Reception on Tour of Country
SENDS MESSAGE TO U. S.
Gathers Fund of Information on Law System

CAMBRIDGE, Eng. — (Associated Press) — Chief Justice William H. Taft, nearing the end of his visit to England, has asked The Associated Press to inform the American people of the splendid reception and glowing hospitality he has received from the British. Before leaving last night for Aberdeen, Scotland, where he will receive another honorary degree, he said:

"My greeting has been so generous and so sincerely cordial that I am unable to find words adequately to convey my gratitude, but I cannot help feeling that England's warm manifestations were not toward me as an individual but in my capacity as a representative of the millions of Americans overseas."

"Everywhere in Great Britain I have found the strongest evidence of the sympathy of the English people for America and I go home with an unbounded admiration for the country whence my ancestors came and from which America derived its common law."

FUND OF INFORMATION
"I have gathered an immense fund of information respecting England's judicial procedure which I will try to digest on the ocean with a view to presenting the main features of the system to the American Bar Association convention in August. English practice simplifies the procedure by embracing both law and equity in a single action. Preliminary hearings compel both parties to disclose the evidence that is relevant on each side so that when the issue is presented in court it can be expeditiously disposed of."

TABLER WOMAN HELD TO JURY; GIRL CONVICTED

Examination on a charge of conducting a disorderly house was waived by Mrs. Frances Tabler, 33, High and West-sts. in criminal court Thursday afternoon and the defendant bound over to the grand jury in $100 bond.

A girl giving her name as Thelma Johnson, arrested with Mrs. Tabler at the latter's home, was found guilty on a statutory charge at a preliminary hearing. Sentence was deferred and she is being held under $100 bond.

RETIRE MEAT DEALER DIES OF COMPLICATION
John Hofman, 78, retired meat dealer, 400 E. North-st., died Friday at 7:15 a. m., from a complication of diseases. He was born in Germany. His wife died some years ago. Surviving are three sons and two daughters. They are Mrs. John Joseph, Portland, Oregon; Mrs. Joseph Purtscher, Lima; William Hofman, Dayton and J. P. and Lon J., both of Lima. He was a member of Lima Lodge No. 91, Knights of Pythias. Funeral arrangements have not been completed. Interment will be in Woodlawn.

CITY OFFICIALS MEET STATE BOARD OF HEALTH IN BATTLE ON DISPOSAL

City officials left Lima early Friday morning for Columbus, where they will hold a conference with members of the state board of health regarding Lima's sewage disposal plant.

Mayor Harold Cunningham, City Manager C. A. Bingham, Commissioner John Harley and 12,000 Hirst, direct oxidation expert from Philadelphia, are in the party.

Full details of the disposal plant planned for Lima, with the guarantees given by the Philadelphia syndicate that the plant will be satisfactory in every respect and that the cost of operation will be less than the sprinkler-filter system, will be presented.

Every possible effort will be made to obtain the approval of the state board of health, in order that the plant may be planned, bids asked for and work started as soon as possible.

Madison-co Recorder Kills Self by Drinking Poison

LONDON, Ohio. — (United Press) — J. Ward Minshall, serving his second term as Madison-co recorder, took his own life by drinking poison at his home here last night.

Friends and relatives declared they were at a loss to find a motive for the act.

Minshall was a candidate for third term.

SPENCERVILLE GIRL DIES OF BURNS IN MICHIGAN

SPENCERVILLE — Albo Bessie Nuniviller, foster daughter of George Nuniviller of this town, was burned to death in an accident at Alma, Mich., 18 months ago, word of the fatality did not reach here until information was afforded by the state compensation department this week.

The accident victim was a daughter of Sherman and May Morehead of this city and was taken by the N. Y. N. when she was but four years old. Several years ago she was married to John Williamson and located in Alma, Mich.

DECISION FOR KLINGER IS APPEALED BY SCHMIDT

Alleging that the justice court jury which tried an action to collect $108 for installing a lighting system in the suburban home of William Klinger, former common pleas judge, erred in its verdict, Ben S. Schmidt sought relief in an appeal to common pleas court, Friday.

Schmidt alleges that the former justice owes him for the plant. Klinger, who acted as his own attorney in the trial before Justice W. H. Guyton, convinced a jury of six men he owed the electrical contractor nothing.

EMPLOYERS GET BIG DIVIDEND

Share $3,000,000 Under Workmen's Compensation Law

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — Employers in 491 classifications under the workmen's compensation law are to share in the distribution of a 30 per cent dividend totaling $3,000,000. Governor Davis was informed today by Director of Industrial Relations Teltow. As a result of this showing a drastic cut in premium rate is to be made, Director Teltow said.

The dividend to be returned to employers exceeds by $1,000,000 the largest previous dividend ever declared by the industrial commission, it was said. The dividend will not be paid to those classes of employers which cost the compensation fund more than their dividends. Those participating in the dividend, however, total 66.3 per cent of all employers of the state, it was said, and this number will obtain premium reductions. Seventy-five classifications will receive increases in premium rates and 179 classes will remain the same as at present.

The dividends will be paid to employers in the form of a credit premium on their next payment under the insurance fund.

Director Teltow also reported that the administrative management of his department during the fiscal year ending June 30, was carried on at a saving of $106,000 under the legislative appropriation and approximately $90,000 under the previous year's cost. On salaries alone, he said, $10,652.39 had been saved.

U. S. DRY IN 1947

Haines Says Liquor Will Last For 25 Years

WASHINGTON. — (United Press) — The United States will not be dry for 25 years. Prohibition Commissioner Haines today estimated for the United Press.

While the country is theoretically dry under the prohibition amendment, it cannot reach a state of complete aridity until all liquor supplies are exhausted. Approximately 38,000,000 gallons of liquor remain in federal warhouses and at the present rate of consumption, for medicinal purposes, it will require 25 years to exhaust the supply.

OLEGIVES UP FIGHT TO REGAIN MAYOR'S CHAIR

YOUNGSTOWN.—Former Mayor George L. Oleg today gave up his fight to regain the mayor's chair. "I'll serve if I'm mayor," he said. "but I'm not willing to neglect my own private business and spend $5,000 to $10,000 to regain the office, especially after serving without pay and making enemies by the hundreds in every attempt to save money for the people of Youngstown."

"I'm going to let the case be settled by the question of whether the acts of William B. Reese as mayor are legal. If his name on the new bond issue is accepted as that of mayor, I'll drop the fight to regain the office."

SON KILLS FATHER

Virginian Claims Killing in Defense of Mother

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. — (Associated Press). — Emmett Wilkerson, 23, yesterday shot and instantly killed his father, W. H. Wilkerson, a prominent farmer of Gilbert, north of here, in defense of his mother, according to the young man's story to Sheriff Smith.

Wilkerson, who was released on bail, was said to have told the sheriff that he killed his father after being attracted by cries from his mother whom he found lying on the floor, he said, with his father standing menacingly over her, after having choked and beaten her. A statement corroborating the son's story is said to have been made by the family physician.

THE BALTIMORE AND OHIO RAILROAD COMPANY

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Baltimore, Md., July 7, 1922.

THE PUBLIC:

It is a matter of common knowledge that a large number of railroad employees designated generally as members of the shop crafts withdrew from the service of their employing companies at 10 A. M., July 1st, 1922.

The strike or stoppage of work on the part of certain classes of railroad employees, this on the same date and at the same hour on practically all of the railroads in the United States, is understood to be in harmony with a pre-arranged plan authorized by the chosen representatives of the men involved.

It has been stated in the columns of the daily press that this procedure on the part of the men is in protest against action taken by certain railroad companies with reference to piece work practice, to the leasing of railroad shops and facilities to outside contractor, and also against order No. 1036 of the United States Railroad Labor Board, effective July 1, 1922, authorizing certain reductions in wages.

A large number of Baltimore and Ohio employees, members of the shop crafts, joined in this concerted movement, although the Baltimore and Ohio Company so far has not sought to re-establish piece work, nor has it leased any of its shops or facilities to outside contractors. No controversy concerning the two specific matters just mentioned exists between this company and any class of its employees.

The Baltimore and Ohio Company however, is subject to the Transportation Act of 1920 and in accordance with the provisions of that act it did announce its intention to put into effect on July 1st the new basis of wages fixed, by the labor board and found by that board to be just and reasonable when tested by the requirements of the Transportation Act.

While more than half of the employees affected by order No. 1036 withdrew from the Baltimore and Ohio service, a very substantial number of the same classes of employees remained at work and have expressed their intention to continue in the service of the company at the new wages lawfully prescribed and now in effect.

The duty is imposed by law upon the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company as a common carrier to provide adequate transportation for all who may desire to make use of its facilities, and it is also the duty of the officers of the company to make every possible and practical effort to operate such trains as may be necessary to serve the public needs.

The efforts of the company to fulfill its obligations to the public have necessarily been hampered by the strike now in effect.

The management of the Baltimore and Ohio Company have so far refrained from hiring new men in large numbers as it might easily have done for the purpose of filling the places made vacant by the men now on strike, hoping that after giving the matter further consideration many of the men who took part in the strike might conclude to return to the service. A considerable number have already returned.

It is felt however, by the management of the company that it must now proceed vigorously to resume normal operations and to the extent that the men now out of service fail to return, it is the intention of the company to employ new men as fast as suitable and competent men can be obtained. The company would much prefer to have its old employees return to the service, but it cannot evade its responsibility to the public under the law.

It must under the law make every reasonable and practical effort to maintain its property and operate its trains, and this duty it will endeavor to perform.

The Baltimore and Ohio management has been extremely anxious to maintain pleasant relations with all classes of its employees and it deeply regrets the situation which has arisen. It is ready and willing to pay the wages fixed by the labor board as just and reasonable. It is not authorized to pay more. It does not expect or desire to pay less. In this connection attention is called to the following paragraph from a bulletin put out by the United States Railroad Labor Board on the 3rd instant:

"Resolved, that if it be assumed that the employees who leave the service of the carrier because of their dissatisfaction with any decisions of the labor board are within their rights in so doing, it must likewise be conceded that the men who remain in the service, and those who enter it anew, are within their rights in accepting employment; that they are not strike breakers seeking to impose the arbitrary will of an employer of employees; that they have the moral as well as the legal right to engage in such service of the American public to avoid interruption of indispensable railway transportation, and that they are entitled to the protection of every department and branch of the government, state and nation. It is suggested that carriers bulletin this resolution which was adopted by the majority action of the board."

"By order of L. M. Parker, secretary, this July 3rd, 1922. United States Railroad Labor Board. Ben. W. Hooper, chairman."

Recognition of the deep interest which all must feel in a controversy of this kind has suggested the publication of this statement.

MOVIE SCHOOL IS ESTABLISHED

Regular Attendance is Required of Screen Stars

STRICT RULES PRESCRIBED

Must Avoid Conduct Liable to Bring Disrepute

LOS ANGELES, Calif.—(Associated Press).—The Famous Players-Lasky Corporation has established a motion picture school for its actors and actresses here and has stipulated that any "pupil" who fails to maintain seventy-five per cent standing in classes, attendance and general deportment is liable to dismissal from the company.

Every member of the Paramount Company, which is owned by the corporation, is eligible for admission to the school. "Unlike the student body of most schools," reads a pamphlet outlining the work, "the students in this company are persons who already have established reputations in their life work of acting for the screen. Therefore, the purpose of the school is not to instruct in the fundamentals of screen art, except as such instruction may correct minor faults, but to broaden the working knowledge of the members of the company to the end that they may increase their versatility and have a wider outlook on their art."

RULES ARE FIXED

Two pages of the pamphlet are devoted to rules and regulations for members. Among the regulations are:

"Avoid alcoholic stimulants and late hours.

"Altho the stock in trade of the members is their ability to portray emotions, the place for such portrayal is on the screen and not in the studio. Temperament is a valuable asset, but temperament out of control is a nuisance to yourself and everybody about you.

"Be careful of the choice of your associates outside the studio.

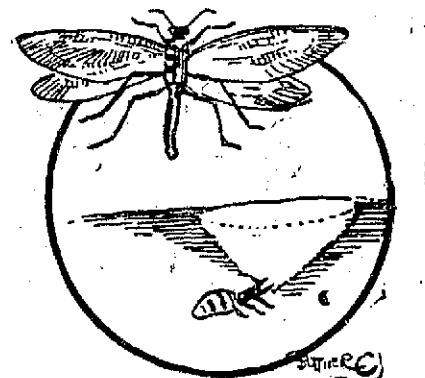

"Members are expected to avoid places, people, circumstances and conduct which might in any way bring themselves and the motion picture profession into disrepute. Any member failing strictly to observe this rule is liable to instant dismissal from the company."

AN ANT THAT'S LIKE A LION

BY PROF. M. J. ELROD
Chair of Biology, University of Montana

Ant Lions are insects. They bear no relations to lions in structure or appearance, but have habits very similar.

The term is applied to the young insects. The adults are very much like dragonflies in appearance, with long bodies and delicate gauzy wings. They are rather poor fliers and are easily captured. The young are wholly unlike the adults. They very much resemble a soft young potato beetle. They live in sandy places, generally about rivers and lakes. The young villain crawls under the sand, flips his head, tosses the sand upward and backward, making a little pit, at the bottom of which he lies in wait for prey. His body is covered, only his large jaws extending into the pit. Along comes a luckless ant, dragging a heavy load, and topples into the hole. The ant scrambles desperately to get out, but by vigorous jerks of the head

Mr. Lion throws sand and keeps him falling. Woe to the ant when the ferocious jaws are reached. They close in a death grip and all is over for the ant. The same fate awaits a beetle or other insect that may fall into the pit.

The ant lion "plays possum." It takes an expert to find him in his lair, for he feigns death, and cannot be distinguished from a dozen little stones. But wherever pits are seen in the sand there ant lions may be found. It takes keen eyes and skill to get them, so well protected are they by color and surroundings.

WAR AIDS SPREAD OF SUFFRAGE

Europe Feels Effect of Enfranchisement of Women

EQUAL RIGHTS IN NORTH

Strong Leaders Back Fight in the South

PARIS.—(Special).—The World War and the sweeping political changes in its wake have changed Europe from a continent where woman was denied the ballot to a predominantly woman-suffrage continent.

Throughout northern Europe women enjoy equal rights with men. In the south they still lack voting power, but they're putting up a strong fight, backed in some cases by leading statesmen.

Here's how the fight stands today:

FRANCE.—Suffrage question up in Parliament with Viviani, Briand and other statesmen favoring it.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Equality of the sexes has been voted by the House of Commons. Two women members are now sitting—Lady Astor and Mrs. Margaret Wenthworth. Suffrage is restricted to women of 30 or more.

SWEDEN.—Women voted for the first time last fall. Five women elected deputies in the Riksdag.

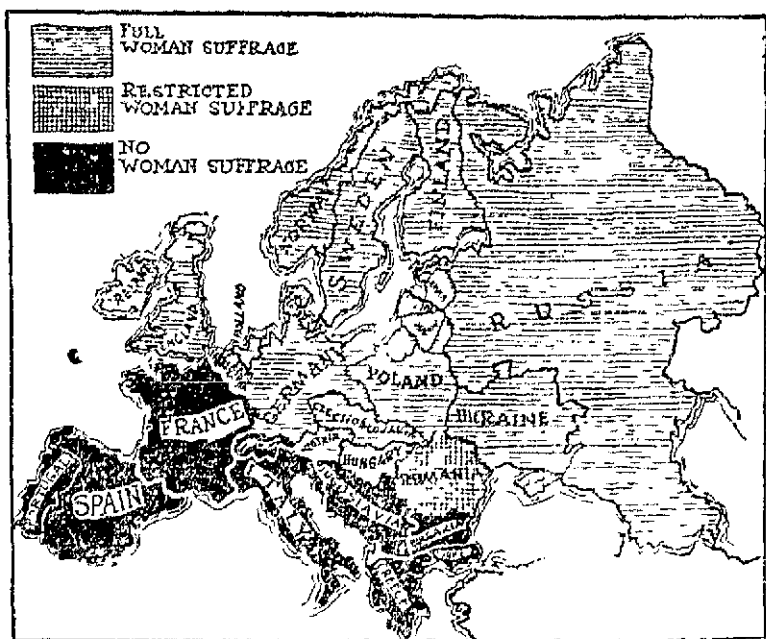

NORWAY.—Women obtained all citizenship rights and even obtained a seat in the cabinet in 1916.

DENMARK.—Women are voters. Eleven in the Riksdag.

RUSSIA.—Soviets declare women on an absolute equality with men.

FINLAND.—Women are voters.

SUFFRAGE MAP OF EUROPE

As far back as 1917 19 we elected to the national parliament.

ESTONIA, LITHUANIA and LATVIA.—Women have equal rights.

UKRAINE.—Women have equal rights. Twelve are deputies in the national assembly.

GERMANY.—After the revolution, women were given the vote and nearly 30 are in the Reichstag.

AUSTRIA.—The republic gave electoral rights to women. They are eligible for the national assembly and municipal councils.

HUNGARY.—Women have suffrage and have elected one deputy to Parliament.

CZECHOSLOVAKIA.—The Czech republic gave the women all the rights men enjoyed. Thirteen women deputies and three senators elected.

POLAND.—Women have the vote and have chosen eight women deputies.

HOLLAND.—Women have the vote. Two are members of Parliament.

BERLIN.—Women have the vote and have chosen one woman as a member of the national assembly.

BEELGH M.—Women are limited to eligibility and vote for burgomasters and other municipal jobs.

ITALY.—The Senate has accorded women suffrage in municipal affairs.

SWITZERLAND.—Laws are largely decided by referendum and the men have not yet accorded full suffrage to women.

PORTUGAL.—The Senate voted a restricted degree of suffrage to women, but the Chamber of Deputies refused to ratify this.

ITALY.—The Senate granted restricted suffrage in 1920, but the Chamber adjourned without taking action.

Spain, Greece, Bulgaria, and Jugoslavia have not accorded the women any rights in elections.

SMEDLEY DENIES CHARGE

A plea of not guilty to an assault, preferred by Sarah Smith, a niece, was entered by Jeff Smedley when arraigned Friday before Acting Criminal Judge E. M. Botkins. Trial was set for Wednesday at 3:30 p. m. Smedley is accused of striking the woman. He is out on $50 bond.

DRIVER UNHURT IN CRASH

Drivers escaped injuries Thursday at 7:30 p. m. when the autos of A. H. Brugner and Darwin Burke collided at Water and Elizabeth streets. The machines were slightly damaged, according to a police report.

Defies Old Age By Using Howard's Buttermilk Cream To Beautify Her Complexion

Tells Druggists Not To Take Anyone's Money Unless This Delightful New Vanishing Cream Quickly Shows a Decided Improvement

Buttermilk Cream creates beauty almost like magic. The most wonderful thing about it is the fact that while it turns the dull, most featureless complexion to radiant beauty and makes the rough, old or tough hands or arms as smooth as a child's, yet there is not the slightest sign of its use. It actually vanishes from sight and the most heated atmosphere will not produce the least skininess or greasiness of the skin.

No matter whether you are troubled with a poor complexion, wrinkles, crow's feet or lines around the mouth, roughness of the face, hands or arms caused by wind or sun, you will find that any or all of these troubles will quickly disappear with the use of Howard's Buttermilk Cream. If you cannot obtain locally send 10 cents (silver or stamps) for generous trial package of both Cream and Soap. Howard Bros. Co., Buffalo, N. Y. All druggists—Adv.

ALL ABOARD FOR JUNIOR CHAUTAUQUA!

Say, Boys and Girls—

Remember vacation days when you put on a circus in some boy's barn? Some of the kids dressed up as Indians, and you had a trapeze, and some kid dressed up like a clown, and you got Bruno, the dog, to do stunts? Well, this "CONQUEST OF PEACE" that the JUNIOR CHAUTAUQUA is going to put on is better than a couple of circuses rolled into one.

Listen! There is going to be a Big Chief Indian, and William Penn, and George Washington and Uncle Sam and John Bull and a lot of Soldiers—every youngster is going to take part in the Biggest Show you ever saw.

And that isn't all. There are games, and stories and songs—a wonderful JUNIOR TOWN organization.

Say, you fellows who don't get in on this are going to miss the biggest wheel-barrow load of fun you ever had. All the boys and girls in Lima are invited. Don't forget the DATE. Junior Chautauqua starts THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 13 and lasts a week. The tickets are only $1, plus 10c war tax.

All Sunday School Superintendents and L. E. LUDWIG, Citizens Building, N. Main St., have tickets for sale.

Safe Travel Possible at
Low Cost

NEW YORK — (Special) —

ats the prediction of John M.
arsen, designer of the all-metal ase and governor of the Aeroical Chamber of Commerce of merica. Larsen has covered more ound by airplane than any other son — more than 300,000 miles mostly in the past three years.

By JOHN M. LARSEN
Within one year after the proper bsdv and regulation by the government, air lines carrying passeners and valuable cargo will be fly-g from New York to San Francisco less than 24 hours without difficulty.

Flights across the Atlantic will be quite as easy. American travelers will be able to land in Europe
than a day.

Any danger? None whatever—if a government selects the proper anes and sees to it that the pilots e carefully trained.

In all my flying I have never met
th an accident.

And I have taken my family with ted to a wedding in Omaha. We icked up took a plane and arrived ere without any trouble. On the iles in less than 11 hours.

Numerous transcontinental air

The air mail has been operating

It is a remarkable achievement

WAR AIDS SPREAD OF SUFFRAGE

Europe Feels Effect of Enfranchisement of Women

EQUAL RIGHTS IN NORTH

Strong Leaders Back Fight in the South

PARIS.—(Special).—The World War and the sweeping political changes in its wake have changed Europe from a continent where woman was denied the ballot to a predominantly woman-suffrage continent.

Throughout northern Europe women enjoy equal rights with men. In the south they still lack voting power but they're putting up a strong fight, backed in some cases by leading statesmen.

Here's how the fight stands today:

FRANCE—Suffrage question up in Parliament with Viviani, Briand and other statesmen favoring it.

GREAT BRITAIN—Equality of the sexes has been voted by the House of Commons. Two women members are now sitting—Lady Astor and Mrs. Margaret Wintringham. Suffrage is restricted to women of 30 or more.

SWEDEN—Women voted for the first time last fall. Five women elected deputies in the Riksdag.

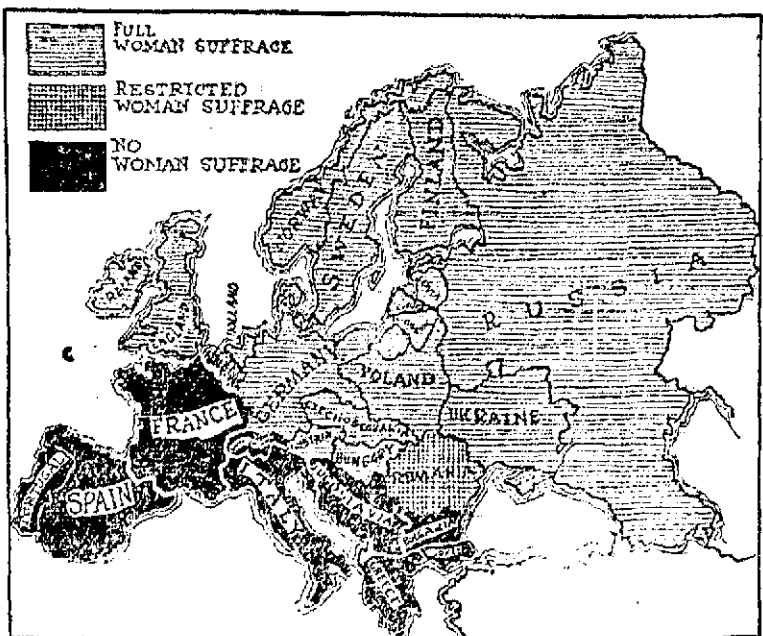

NORWAY—Women obtained all citizenship rights and even obtained a seat in the cabinet in 1916.

DENMARK—Women are voters. Eleven in the Riksdag.

RUSSIA—Soviets declare women on an absolute equality with the men.

FINLAND—Women are voters.

SUFFRAGE MAP OF EUROPE

As far back as 1917-19 were elected to the national parliament.

ESTONIA, LITHUANIA and LETTONIA—Women have equal rights.

UKRAINE—Women have equal rights. Twelve are deputies in the national assembly.

GERMANY—After the revolution, women were given the vote and nearly 30 are in the Reichstag.

AUSTRIA—The republic gave electoral rights to women. They are eligible for the national assembly and municipal councils.

HUNGARY—Women have suffrage and have elected one deputy to Parliament.

CZECHOSLOVAKIA—The Czech republic gave the women all the rights men enjoyed. Thirteen women deputies and three senators elected.

POLAND—Women have the vote and have chosen eight women deputies.

HOLLAND—Women have the vote. Two are members of Parliament.

LUXEMBURG—Women have the vote and have chosen one woman as a member of the national assembly.

BELGIUM—Women are limited to eligibility and vote for burgomasters and other municipal jobs.

ROMANIA—The Senate has accorded women suffrage in municipal affairs.

SWITZERLAND—Jaws are largely decided by referendum and the men have not yet accorded full suffrage to women.

PORTUGAL—The Senate voted a restricted degree of suffrage to women, but the Chamber of Deputies refused to ratify this.

ITALY—The Senate granted restricted suffrage in 1920, but the Chamber adjourned without taking action.

Spain, Greece, Bulgaria, and Jugoslavia have not accorded the women any rights in elections.

SMEDLEY DENIES CHARGE

A plea of not guilty to an assault, preferred by Sarah Smith, a niece, was entered by Jeff Smedley when arraigned Friday before Acting Criminal Judge E. M. Botkins. Trial was set for Wednesday at 3:30 p. m. Smedley is accused of striking the woman. He is out on $50 bond.

DRIVER UNHURT IN CRASH

Drivers escaped injuries Thursday at 7:35 p. m. when the autos of A. H. Brugner and Darwin Burke collided at Water and Elizabeth streets. The machines were slightly damaged, according to a police report.

Defies Old Age By Using Howard's Buttermilk Cream To Beautify Her Complexion

Tells Druggists Not To Take Anyone's Money Unless This Delightful New Vanishing Cream Quickly Shows a Decided Improvement

Buttermilk Cream creates beauty almost like magic. The most wonderful thing about it is the fact that while it turns the dull, most lifeless complexion to radiant beauty and makes red or rough hands or arms smooth and white, yet there is not the slightest sign of its use. It actually vanishes from sight and the most heated atmosphere will not produce the least shininess or greasiness of the skin. No matter whether you are troubled with a pimple, complexion, wrinkles, puffiness around the eyes, freckles, crows feet or lines around the mouth, ugly flaking, or just a simple roughness of the face, hands or arms caused by wind or sun, you will find that any or all of these troubles will quickly disappear with the use of Howard's Buttermilk Cream. If you cannot obtain locally send 10 cents (silver or stamps) for generous trial package of both Cream and Soap, Howard Bros. Co., Buffalo, N. Y. All druggists—Adv.

ALL ABOARD FOR JUNIOR CHAUTAUQUA!

Say, Boys and Girls—

Remember vacation days when you put on a circus in some boy's barn? Some of the kids dressed up as Indians, and you had a trapeze, and some kid dressed up like a clown, and you got Bruno, the dog, to do stunts? Well, this "CONQUEST OF PEACE" that the JUNIOR CHAUTAUQUA is going to put on is better than a couple of circuses rolled into one.

Listen! There is going to be a Big Chief Indian, and William Penn, and George Washington and Uncle Sam and John Bull and a lot of Soldiers—every youngster is going to take part in the Biggest Show you ever saw.

And that isn't all. There are games, and stories and songs—a wonderful JUNIOR TOWN organization.

Say, you fellows who don't get in on this are going to miss the biggest wheel-barrow load of fun you ever had. All the boys and girls in Lima are invited. Don't forget the DATE. Junior Chautauqua starts THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 13 and lasts a week. The tickets are only $1, plus 10c war tax.

All Sunday School Superintendents and L. E. LUDWIG, Citizens Building, N. Main St., have tickets for sale.

ST-TO-COAST

Air Development Depends on U. S. Says Larsen

RS GOVERNMENT AID

Safe Travel Possible at
Low Cost

YORK — (Special) — coast to coast in less than 24
— in an airline Pullman!
the prediction of John M.
designer of the all-metal and governor of the Aeroal Chamber of Commerce of
ca. Larsen has covered more by airplane than any other
— more than 300,000 miles
tly in the past three years.

By JOHN M. LARSEN
him one year after the proper ity and regulation by the gov-nt, air lines carrying passennd valuable cargo will be flying New York to San Francisco
s than 24 hours without diffi-ships across the Atlantic will be as easy. American travelers will be able to land in Europe in a day.

danger? None whatever—if government selects the proper and sees to it that the pilots are fully trained.
all my flying I have never met an accident.
I have taken my family with me. For instance, we were into a wedding in Omaha. We up, took a plane and arrived without any trouble. On the back we broke the American distance non-stop record, flying Omaha to a place near Iowa, approximately 1,200
in less than 11 hours!
norous transcontinental airlines have been made.
air mail has been operating coast to coast with a 95 per cent efficiency more than a year.
is a remarkable achievement we consider they are using old war planes.
plane technique has reached a state of development that all is necessary to bring about a real popularization is action by government to which transcontinental navigation on a large scale.

Not only would this supply a commercial need, but the nation could build up a protective force that could be mustered to any point by one wireless flash!
It is easy to construct planes suited both for long distance passenger service—and bombing.
The car can be as comfortable as train Pullmans—only more roomy—and at the same time be easily converted into destructive bombers.
EXPENSE SMALL.
Such a fleet of planes would insure, not only a regular passenger service, but also a large force of ships available for defense—at an expense that would be comparatively small.
Such construction should be encouraged by some form of subsidy.
Safety should be insured by the proper training of fliers.
On each plane carrying passengers I would have not only a pilot guiding the ship, but a captain directing its course. That would add to the safety.
Under government regulation night flying should be made safe by developing some adequate lighting system. Then in case of an emergency there would be no clogging of railway tracks—no delay. The air fleet would be ready.
And in times of peace, the busy business and other travelers, always in a hurry, could travel anywhere safely, comfortably and quickly—thru the air.

OPEN LETTERS

To City Manager Bingham

DEAR CLARENCE: It has come to my attention that some city officials believe the expressions of dissatisfaction concerning daylight saving time in Lima are merely to keep the issue alive until election time, when it will be voted on.

There may be ground for such belief, but Clarence, I'm convinced that the kicking I hear against it is not all political propaganda. The majority of my citizens may be for the fast time, but if they are, it has been my lot to meet mostly those of the opposition and a small percentage of those favoring it.

To you, Jake, I would say that there can be no question of your winning the contest. You demonstrated your ability to beat your opponent decisively. You deserve credit for your exhibition, with one exception—butting in the first round.

To Babe, I say you made friends by your game exhibition when you were nopelessly defeated. You have the consolation of knowing you were worthy of your opponent's best efforts.

I am glad the matter is settled and trust both of you and your followers will be good sports and accept the outcome as becomes true sportsmen.

MY FRIENDS: Your plan of getting together for a better mutual understanding has my hearty approval. Too long has there been a feeling that city and farm folks have nothing in common.

The opposite is the situation. Committees of the Chamber of Commerce, the Farm Bureau and Pomona Grange should be able to pave the way for breaking down the barriers between city and country. It's worth trying, anyway. May the plan succeed.

ture of things. Avoided the poste, but Roy Dunn caught me with one at the office. Then to Merl's for a trim and learned of a game gambler from Lakeview, whose tale was of big stakes played recently at the reservoir resort. Then the gambler discussed religion with Merl.

Out, and met John Roby, the financier, and money remains tight. Watched the repairmen rebuilding North street. Seems the foundation has crystallized. Bumped into Walter Scott Jackson, the eminent barrister. Who introduced his uncle, Scott Jackson, a one-time Limaiter. Who set type on the old Gazette with Ab Pangie, Arch Campbell and Ollie Selfridge. Employed by Cornelius Parmenter, father of Bob and Walt. Scott has been long from us in Baltimore. And the only other friends he met was during the half-day he spent in Woodlawn.

To the office, whence came my rich sister from St. Mary's, with Mrs. Gay Noble, wife of the famed physician. Was Guy's guest unbeknownst to him, for dinner one night at Idlewild. He one of the two entertaining hosts. In the days when you could wash down chicken and not be forced to Fletcherize.

On the way home to lunch, luffed by my bootblack who gave me a lift in his Packard. Lunched on stewed Pekin, with some cold pig, and a cherry pie for the sweet. This is the day all the noble golfers have gone to Piqua, but my greates cold still upon me prevented me the pastime. Could have stood well the golf, but in no condition for the push. Last time I went down, coming home, I cautioned Tom McLaughlin about the way he was driving. And Tom said, 'Scuse me Jack, that yause was drivin'.

Read with more interest than I ever got from an Encyclopedia, the many rank statements of the towns. The one thing peculiar about a bank statement different from other brave industries, is that it always has the word dividends and cash on hand. Home, washed the dog, wound the clock and weeded the radish bed. Dined well on a boiled ox tongue, with sauer kraute and cabbage.

In the late evening, bot two bots of the White Rock waters and no one about. And Bill Harper said, now come the old days when they was begging me to keep open just another half hour and they would sure fix it aw-right. And I said, them days has went for ever, Bill. The only thing to look forward to nowaday is whether you want the funeral at the house or the church. And so to bed.

DEAR WARREN: One Cleveland editor, I note, says that daily perusal of the newspapers gives him the impression that if you aren't "going," you are "returning" and that "week-ends" bulk large in your weeks. He suggests that you might save money by buying railroad tickets wholesale and save overhead expense by closing the White House, since you apparently seldom use it.

I wouldn't do it, Warren. I'd keep the house open. You can never tell when it will be necessary for you to run into Washington and quarters at a hotel aren't like home. However, the Cleveland scribe may be handing you a tip worth while on the ticket matter.

POEMS YOU WILL ENJOY

BY BERTON BRALEY

NO CHANCE
You can't live your own life
The way that you choose,
Nor color and tone life
To meet your own views;
Your play and your labors
Affect all your neighbors
Wherever you happen to stay;
And Tom, Dick and Harry
And Sue, Jane and Mary
Won't quite let you have your own way,
And also their mothers,
Dads, sisters and brothers
And ten thousand others
Have something to say.

Fate gives you no permit
To live as you will;
Why, even a hermit
Has rules to fulfill!
And with your location
In civilization
Unless you are blind you will see,
That Tom, Dick and Harry
And Sue, Jane and Mary
Have views that with yours don't agree;
And they and their brothers,
Dads, sisters and mothers
And ten million others
Won't let you be free!

HEALTH TALKS

Common Sense Ways to Keep Well.

TEETH REQUIRE LIME

(BY DR. R. H. BISHOP)
You can brush your teeth diligently and well after every meal and you can use the best of tooth powders or dental creams, but if you don't eat enough lime your teeth will decay. For science has come to the conclusion that decay is brought about by systemic changes in the blood.

The blood of a person who lives according to health common sense will contain certain special substances called "sozins." Sozins contain lime for the make-up of bones and teeth. Sozins also are present in varying quantities in the saliva. The man having a high resistant power will have the larger amount of sozins in the saliva and consequently will have better teeth.

Thus, it is a deficiency of lime in the diet of the average American that is a widespread factor in the universal decay of teeth. The average bill of fare consisting of fine flour, bread, potatoes, meat, coffee, butter, sugar, breakfast foods, fruits, etc., contain less than one-quarter of the amount of lime necessary to maintain calcium balance.

Dentists long ago relinquished the idea that the toothbrush can stay clean. The toothbrush is important and does a great deal toward checking decay, but still more important is a recognition of the causes of dental decay. To eliminate these causes requires, first, an improvement in resistance to disease by improving the general health. Second, a dietary rich in calcium so as to make sure of a high calcium content of the saliva. Such a diet includes an abundance of greens and fresh vegetables. Whole wheat cereals should be substituted for such food stuffs as fine flour, hominy, cornmeal, polished rice, and various bakery products. Milk should be freely used, especially by growing children. Third, the teeth should be brushed on arising in the morning, before retiring at night and after each meal. Fourth, laxative food-stuffs should be included in the dietary in order to keep free of constipation. If necessary agar-agar and paraffin may be used in some form.

It was clear that he mistook Andre-Louis' quality, for despite his reduced fortunes, his exterior was irreproachable.

You are come in regard to that?" Andre-Louis shrugged and half led. "One must live," said he.

But come in. Take off your hat," M. des Amis said, "and let us see what you can do. Nature, at what you are for a swordsman."

He led him to the end of the room, where the bare floor was scored with chalk to guide the beginner in the management of his feet.

At the end of a ten-minute's bout, M. des Amis offered him the situation, and explained it. In addition to the rudiments of the fencing room every morning, the pupils furnished, assist the fencer who came for lessons to assist and under, and make him generally useful. His wages for present were to be forty livres a month.

The position had its humiliations, but Andre-Louis would have to be, he must begin by eating his de as an hors d'oeuvre.

"And so," he said, controlling a smile, "the robe yields not only the sword, but to the room as well."

It is characteristic of him that he chose, he should throw himself into the work with enthusiasm.

Every morning before the opening of the academy, the master would go for half an hour with his new assistant. Under this really excellent tuition Andre-Louis improved a rate that both astounded and terrified M. des Amis. He would be less flattered and more assured had he known that at least, if the secret of Andre-Louis' progress lay in the fact that was devouring the contents of the master's library, which was made of a dozen or so treatises on fencing by great masters.

At the end of a month he suddenly found upon M. des Amis that his assistant had developed into a fencer with whom it became necessary to exert himself if he were to escape defeat.

"I said from the first," he told him one day, "that Nature designed me for a swordsman."

"To the master be the glory," said Andre-Louis.

His relations with M. des Amis had meanwhile become of the friendliest, and he was now beginning to receive from him other pupils than the best men. M. des Amis, a valiant, open-handed fellow, rewarded his zeal by increasing his wages to four louis a month.

CHAPTER II

Andre-Louis was in the gardens of the Palais Royal, the universal rendezvous on that Sunday morning in one when the news of Necker's dismissal spread, carrying with it dismay and fury.

He beheld a slight young man with pock-marked face leap to a table outside the Cafe de Foy, a drawn sword in his hand, crying "To arms!" And then upon the silence of astonishment that cry imposed, his young man poured a flood of inamatory eloquence.

Enthusiasm swept the crowd, a motley crowd, made up of men and women of every class, from vagabond to nobleman, from harlot to lady of fashion.

Andre-Louis looked on, and grew afraid. This crowd, he felt, must be restrained. That hot-headed, irresponsible stutler would have the town in a blaze by night unless something were done. The young man, Camille Dasmoullins, later to become famous, leapt down from his table still waving his sword, still shouting, "To arms! Follow me!"

Andre-Louis advanced to occupy the improvised rostrum, and came suddenly face to face with a tall man beautifully dressed.

Thus face to face, each looking into the eyes of the other. Then Andre-Louis laughed.

"That fellow, too, has a very dangerous gift of eloquence, M. le Marquis," he said.

"Callowbird!" he was answered. "I shall tell the Lieutenant-General that you are to be found in Paris."

"My God, man!" cried Andre-Louis. "Will you talk like that of Lieutenant-General when Paris itself is likely to tumble about your ears or take five under your feet?"

A rush of men hurried against him, swept him along with them, do what he could, separating him from M. de La Tour d'Azyr, so odd a meeting.

Bloodshed there was that day in Paris. On the Place Vendome a detachment of dragoons awaited the crowd out of which Andre-Louis had slipped. The horsemen swept down upon the mob, dispersed it.

The victims were taken up and borne thence, and amongst them was Bertrand des Amis, himself like all who lived by the sword—an ardent upholder of the noblesse—trampled to death under hoofs of foreign horsemen launched by the noblesse and led by a nobleman.

To Andre-Louis four men of the people brought that broken body of one of the earliest victims of the Revolution that was now launched in earnest.

The ferment of Paris which, during the two following days, resembled an armed camp rather than a city, delayed the burial of Bertrand

COMET-LEGS ACHIEVES HIS EVIL AIM

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

"Say, is that what's wrong?" asked Wally.

"How do you do?" said Nancy and Nick when Wally Woodchuck opened his front door in answer to their knock.

"Well, well, well!" cried Wally. "If you're not a sight for sore eyes! Where have you been and what have you been doing since you were here last spring with Mr. Tingaling, the fairy landlord, to collect my rent?"

"We've been on the Moon," replied Nick. "But the Moon-Man, old Mr. Peerabout, is lost and we're hunting for him."

"Say, is that what's wrong?" asked Wally. "I wondered! Who's running it now?"

"Mr. Sprinkle-Blow, the Weatherman, until we find Mr. Peerabout," explained Nick. "But old Comet-Legs, a wicked fairy, would like to be Moon-Man and he's doing all he can to spoil things. Why?"

"Well, I'll tell you," said Wally. "Last night my wife was putting the babies to sleep and she sang a song like this:

"Oh, hush-a-bye, my little ground diggers, With Woolken, fur and nice fat little fingers, All cuddly and warm, and as round as the Moon, As it sails thru the sky from July unto June."

"Suddenly, our youngest, Woolkins, said, 'Mama, why do you sing to us all the time about the Moon being round? It was square last night.'"

"We thought he'd been dreaming."

but he said he wasn't. He said he'd wakened in the night and the Moon was as square as a soap-box."

Nancy looked at Nick and Nick looked at Nancy, their eyes as round as saucers.

"Oh, thank you for telling us," said Nancy. "Old Comet-Legs must have put the Weatherman out, too! He said he'd turn the Moon square the minute he got a chance. Good-by, Mr. Woodchuck."

Off to the Moon sailed Nancy and Nick and on the way they met Mr. Sprinkle-Blow riding on his umbrella. "I was just going to look for you," he said.

des Amis until the Wednesday of that eventful week. Andre-Louis succeeded to the fencing-school in which he was himself so well established as an instructor.

And so, one fine day in early August, he received a visit from Le Chapelier.

"I have news for you, Andre. Your godfather is at Meudon. There have been fresh disturbances in Brittany."

Not until Sunday was Andre-Louis able to satisfy a wish which the impatience of the intervening days had converted into a yearning.

Dressed with more than ordinary care, his head elegantly coiffed—Andre-Louis mounted his hired carriage, and drove out to Meudon.

It was into the presence of a peevish and rather somnolent M. de Kercadiou that Andre-Louis was ushered. He was unannounced, as had even been the custom at Gavril-lac.

"What do you want here?" growled M. de Kercadiou.

"No more than to kiss your hand, monsieur my godfather," said Andre-Louis, submissively, bowing his sleek black head.

"You can't. You'll never make me understand how you came to render yourself so odiously notorious in Brittany."

"Ah, not odiously, monsieur. Certainly, odiously. It is said even that you were Omnes Omnibus, though that I cannot, will not believe."

"Yet it is true."

M. de Kercadiou choked. "And you confess it? You dare to confess it?"

"What a man dares to do, he should dare to confess—unless he is a coward."

"Oh, and to be sure you were very brave, running away each time after you had done the mischief, turning comedian to hide yourself, doing more mischief as a comedian, provoking a riot in Nantes, and then running away again, to become God knows what—something dishonest."

by the affluent look of you. My God, man, I tell you that in these past two years I have hoped that you were dead, and you profoundly disappointed me that you are not!" He beat his hands together and raised his shrill voice to call—"Benoit."

"Benoit, the door. M. Andre-Louis Moreau to the door!"

The tone argued an irrevocable determination. Pale and self-contained, but with a queer pain at his heart, Andre-Louis heard that dismissal, and then another voice, a crisp, boyish voice, cut in.

"Uncle!" it cried, a world of indignation and surprise in its pitch, and then: "Andre!" And this time a note almost of gladness, certain of welcome, was blended with the surprise that still remained.

Both turned, half the room between them at the moment, and beheld Aline in one of the long, open windows, arrested there in the act of entering from the garden, Aline in a milk-maid bonnet of the latest mode, though without any of the trocolor embellishments that were so commonly to be seen upon them.

She was coming toward him now with outstretched hands, a heightened color in her cheeks, a smile of welcome on her lips. He bowed low and kissed her hand in silence.

"Thus face to face, each looking into the eyes of the other. Then Andre-Louis laughed.
"That fellow, too, has a very dangerous gift of eloquence, M. le Marquis," he said.
"Call us birds!" he was answered. "I shall tell the Lieutenant-General that you are to be found in Paris."
"My God, man!" cried Andre-Louis. "Will you talk like that of Lieutenant-Generals when Paris itself is likely to tumble about your ears or take fire under your feet?"
A rush of men hurried against Andre-Louis.

CHAPTER III
The ferment of Paris which, during the two following days, resembled an armed camp rather than a city, delayed the burial of Bertrand.

"Say, is that what's wrong?" asked Wally.
"How do you do?" said Nancy and Nick when Wally Woodchuck opened his front door in answer to their knock.
"Well, well, well!" cried Wally. "If you're not a sight for sore eyes! Where have you been and what have you been doing since you were here last spring with Mr. Tingaling, the fairy landlord, to collect my rent?"
"We've been on the Moon," replied Nick. "But the Moon-Man, old Mr. Peerbout, is lost and we're hunting for him."
"Say, is that what's wrong?" asked Wally. "I wondered! Who's running it now?"
"Mr. Sprinkle-Blow, the Weatherman, until we find Mr. Peerbout," explained Nick. "But old Comet-Legs, a wicked fairy, would like to be Moon-Man and he's doing all he can to spoil things. Why?"
"Well, I'll tell you," said Wally. "Last night my wife was putting the babies to sleep and she sang a song like this:
"Oh, hush-a-bye, my little ground diggers,
With Wooliken, fur and nice fat little fingers,
All cuddly and warm, and as round as the Moon,
As it sails thru the sky from July unto June."
"Suddenly, our youngest, Woolikins, said, 'Mama, why do you sing to us all the time about the Moon being round? It was square last night.'"
"We thought he'd been dreaming."

des Amis until the Wednesday of that eventful week. Andre-Louis succeeded to the fencing-school in which he was himself so well established as an instructor.
And so, one fine day in early August, he received a visit from Le Chapelier.
"I have news for you, Andre. Your godfather is at Meudon. There have been fresh disturbances in Brittany."
Not until Sunday was Andre-Louis able to satisfy a wish which the impatience of the intervening days had converted into a yearning. Dressed with more than ordinary care, his head elegantly coiffed—Andre-Louis mounted his hired carriage, and drove out to Meudon.
It was into the presence of a peevish and rather somnolent M. de Keraedou that Andre-Louis was ushered. He was unannounced, as had even been the custom at Gavril-lac.
"What do you want here?" growled M. de Keraedou.
"No more than to kiss your hand, monsieur my godfather," said Andre-Louis, submissively, bowing his sleek black head.
"You can't. You'll never make me understand how you came to render yourself so odiously notorious in Brittany."
"Ah, not odiously, monsieur."
"Certainly, odiously. It is said even that you were Omnes Omnibus, though that I cannot, will not believe."
"Yet it is true."
M. de Keraedou choked. "And you confess it? You dare to confess it?"
"What a man dares to do, he should dare to confess—unless he is a coward."
"Oh, and to be sure you were very brave, running away each time after you had done the mischief, turning comedian to hide yourself, doing more mischief as a comedian, provoking a riot in Nantes, and then running away again, to become God knows what—something dishonest

by the affluent look of you. My God, man, I tell you that in these past two years I have hoped that you were dead, and you profoundly disappoint me that you are not!" He beat his hands together and raised his shrill voice to exclaim—"Benoit!"
"Benoit, the door," M. Andre-Louis Moreau to the door!"
The tone argued an irrevocable determination. Pale and self-contained, but with a queer pain at his heart, Andre-Louis heard that dismissal, and then another voice, a crisp, boyish voice, cut in.
"Uncle!" it cried, a world of indignation and surprise in its pitch, and then: "Andre!" And this time a note almost of gladness, certain of welcome, was blended with the surprise that still remained.

Both turned, half the room between them at the moment, and beheld Alaine in one of the long, open windows, arrested there in the act of entering from the garden. Alaine in a milk-maid bonnet of the latest mode, though without any of the tinsel or embellishments that were so commonly to be seen upon them.
She was coming toward him now with outstretched hands, a heightened color in her cheeks, a smile of welcome on her lips. He bowed low and kissed her hand in silence.

U. S. MUST LEAD, HARDING SAYS

President Speaks on Conditions Faced by World

NEW CONCORD, Ohio — (Associated Press) — Speaking at Muskingum College, which conferred the honorary degree of doctor of laws upon him, President Harding today declared "it is up to the people of America not only to tranquilize themselves and get on the right track, but to point the way to the world and help it get on its feet again."

Muskingum College, which is a United Presbyterian institution, in 1887 absorbed Ohio Central College, which the president attended as a student. Recalling the 44 years since he attended Ohio Central College at Iberia, Ohio, near his home, the president remarked:

"If I knew as much today as I thought I did then, I would fear none of the problems that confront me."

The presidential party stopped off here on its way by automobile from Columbus to Washington just long enough for the ceremony and for luncheon. The degree was conferred in the hollow near the college spring with 1,000 or more persons grouped on the hillside.

Addressing particularly the students of the summer school, who almost entirely made up his audience, Mr. Harding urged them to remember in their preparations for life that service is the greatest compensation that can come to man. No life is worth while that is not a life of service, he added.

PHOTOGRAPH OF PITTSBURG C. C. MEMBERS TAKEN HERE, OFFICIAL TOUR PICTURE

A photograph taken of members of the Pittsburgh chamber of commerce when they visited Lima on their "Golden Rule Tour" has been made the official picture of the trip. It has been reproduced in a souvenir booklet describing the trip and is being sent to chambers of commerce along the route of the tour. J. Kennard Johnson, manager of the Lima body, has received several of the booklets.

A number of Lima men are shown in the picture with the Pittsburgh members of the party were loud in their praise of the entertainment they were afforded here. A reception at the Elks home and a tour of Lima factories occupied their time.

GARAGE MENACED BY FIRE; SHORT CIRCUIT IN AUTO

Short circuit in a Studebaker auto owned by J. A. Mohr, real estate man, 219-21 Holmes block, caused a small blaze in the Hawisher Motor Co. garage, W. Market-st., at 10 30 a. m. Friday.

Burning of insulation on wires was the extent of the damage. The fire department was called.

CIDER PROVES COSTLY TO EYSTER; $15 FOR SOUSE

Cider is a poor agent for locating a point one gets for and likewise is a poor substitute for a compass. To all of this William Eyster, 62, D. High-st., agreed in criminal court Friday when arraigned on a drunkenness charge.

Eyster said he started home Thursday night and got in the wrong "pew" by stopping into police headquarters instead of his home, which is next door to the station. Sergeant Charles McCoy immediately took note of Eyster's condition and arrested him as he entered the bastille.

The elder cost Eyster $15, which was paid out of $25 cash bond given after arrest.

RAIN FORECAST GIVEN RENEWAL

Prediction of showers for Friday morning failed to materialize. However, there were indications of such a visitation. When the weatherman came thru at noon with a forecast of showers tonight, there were grounds for belief that moisture might come even sooner.

Early clearing Saturday morning is the further forecast. Cooler Saturday in the west and extreme north portions tonight.

Thundersqualls and lightning are anticipated in event of rain, unless the temperature sufficiently cools to dispel it. High winds Friday morning were accepted as an indication that a storm was brewing somewhere in the west.

Very little complaint is being heard concerning the brand of weather served up. Delightfully cool breezes still feature and there are no indications of a hot wave. For all of which most folks are thankful.

SUPREME COURT REVIEW OF HARPER CONVICTION; SENTENCE IS HALTED

Clyde Harper, convicted in July 1921, of robbing W. M. Pence, Sidney, in the Manhattan Hotel, may be granted a new trial if the Ohio Supreme court finds error in his case, his attorneys announce.

The supreme court on Friday announced that the case will be reviewed to determine if the lower courts erred. Harper is out on bond. The action of the court temporarily suspends his sentence.

The defendant in his appeal alleged that testimony used by the state against him was largely given by persons said to be connected with liquor vending. Harper was convicted before Judge Fred C. Becker. Later appeals court affirmed the verdict, and the case was carried to the supreme court.

HOLM & SWINEHART GIVEN MEMORIAL HALL CONTRACT

Holm & Swinehart, Lima contractors, were awarded a contract to redecorate Memorial Hall, on their low bid of $977, by the board of county commissioners Friday.

CORPORATION TAX RETURN MUST BE FILED IN JULY

Tax reports for 1923 must be filed by Lima corporations before the end of the month, J. C. Marsh, deputy collector of Internal revenue, said Friday.

Every corporation whose home is in Lima must make return in this district. Several of the larger corporations have a legal home in another district and will make their reports there, Marsh says.

Several concerns have already filed. They may be sent to the Lima office or to the district office at Toledo, Marsh said.

street work in the cities to which they were assigned. No confirmation of this declaration could be had.

The general chairman also declared that maintenance of way men were becoming increased at the action of railway officials who were putting alleged strikebreakers to work in cinder pits rather than in the machine shops. He declared that few if any of the men who are being shipped about by the railroads are mechanics able to fill the positions vacated by the striking shopmen.

Railroad officials were silent on this score.

Conditions at the L. E. & W. shops were reported unchanged Friday. Police declare that one strike breaker had been employed in the yards of that road since the strike went into effect. Officials of the Lake Erie denied this report.

Strikers were in a highly optimistic frame of mind Friday morning, declaring that a break in the stand of railway officials was imminent. They were inclined to believe that they have the fight won.

They base their optimism upon what they characterize as frantic statements being issued to the public by railway officials. They characterized the report that the railroads were to use "vigorous" measures in combating the strike, as "desperate attempts" to win out.

The Pennsylvania roundhouse has been closed, the picket lines of the striking shopmen are still maintained.

The L. E. & W. shops were added to those advertising for men to fill places left vacant by the strikers. Friday. They inserted advertisements in the columns of The Lima News calling for mechanics, boiler-makers, car repairmen and other craftsmen who could handle the work previously cared for by the men now on strike. The B. & O. are continuing their advertisement first inserted a number of days ago.

MOTOR COP BEATS FELLOW OFFICERS TO EXPERIENCE OF TAKING PLANE JOURNEY

Motor Cop B. F. Watkins hastened Thursday afternoon to accept a "dare" by D. J. Cline, aviator, who has a plane at West-st. and O'Connor-av., challenging members of the police department to see Lima with him.

Watkins felt that it was a point of honor to gobble up the skyman's offer. They attempted an altitude of 1,500 feet and created the clouds for half an hour. Watkins says he likes it even better than riding his favorite "road louse."

Other members of the department say they also will accept the "dare" Saturday.

MEN AND MATTERS

J. H. Goelke, Domestic-bldg, Democratic candidate for Congress, addressed a meeting of the chamber of commerce at Munster, Thursday night.

W. W. Reeder has reopened the Hotel Tourist at West Cairo and is entering to auto tourist parties. The hotel has 20 rooms. The place was conducted by Reeder's father, A. P. Reeder, for 25 years.

MRS. LAURA MCCLURE IS NAMED EXECUTRIX OF GROVER DAGGON ESTATE

Grover C. Daggon, world war veteran who died in October, 1921, as a result of wounds and gassing incurred in France, left an estate valued at approximately $2,000, according to records in probate court.

Estate of the war veteran was settled at a hearing held before Judge J. H. Hamilton Friday. Total amount it was shown consists of $2,000 back pay and compensation due him from the government.

Mrs. Laura McClure, 712 E. High-st., a sister, was named administratrix, without bond. She is a sister.

Worry over Grover's death and the ill health of Frank, another soldier brother, caused Grace Daggon, a sister who resided with the boys, to attempt to kill herself at Grover's grave in Woodlawn cemetery. She recovered and was committed to the Toledo hospital.

COUNTY OFFICIALS VISIT COLUMBUS TO TAKE KINKS OUT OF ROAD BOND SALE

Hitch in the disposal of county bonds issued to pay the county's half of the cost of construction of the Harding Highway from Elda to Scotts Crossing may delay the letting of the road work, county commissioners declared Friday.

A. J. Gray, president of the board, Prosecuting Attorney Eugene Lippincott and Glenn Wallace clerk, left Friday for Columbus, where they will try to straighten out the situation.

Sale is being delayed, it is believed, on account of a technicality.

Bids on the work were to have been received on July 14. Later the date was changed to July 21, according to Commissioner W. W. Craig.

BOY DISAPPEARS, LEAVES NOTE FOR MOTHER; POLICE AID SOUGHT BY RELATIVES

A note, giving the meagre information he would write as soon as he reached his destination, was all that was left by Ralph McMillen, 15, son of Mrs. Nina McMillen, who disappeared Friday between 6 and 7 a. m. Lure of the big city is the reason, it is believed by relatives.

Police were appealed to by the boy's sister, Mrs. Arthur Ray, of the same address, in an effort to find him. She believes he may have gone to Chicago, of which he spoke after giving up a job at the Deisel-Wemmer cigar factory here.

McMillen weighs about 100 pounds, has dark brown hair and blue eyes and wore a dark cap and dark trousers. He had no coat, police say.

C. C. BOARD ACTS ON COMPENSATION QUERY

Action on the workmen's compensation referendum sent out by the Cincinnati chamber of commerce was decided by a committee from the Chamber of Commerce at a luncheon at the Lima club Friday noon.

J. W. Beall, Roy B. Dunn, Dr. M. R. Thomas, Walter Jackson, Dr. M. T. McGriff and Glen C. Webb are members of the committee. Answers to the questions were devised by them at the meeting.

A statewide conference is planned later and the Lima body will be represented. J. Kennard Johnson, manager, states.

ROBINSON IS UNINJURED WHEN CAR IS OVERTURNED

A Buick sedan, driven by Jere Robinson, 629 W. Elm-st., turned over in the ditch in front of the A. H. Rothe store, at Slabtown, Thursday afternoon, when the automobile was struck by a passing truck.

The driver was the only occupant of the car. He was not injured. It was necessary to replace the two rear wheels of the car before the trip could be made to the city.

The truck is said to have been operated by the contractor who is improving the Dixie highway, near Slabtown.

AUTOS IN COLLISION

Autos driven by E. B. Moyer, Harold, and Frank Morris, 211 Holland block, collided at 9:30 a. m. Friday at Main and High-sts. The radiator on the Moyer car was damaged. No body was injured.

CLOTURE BEATEN

G. O. P. Effort to Shut off Tariff Debate Fails

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — The Republican move to enforce closure on the administration tariff bill failed today in the senate. The vote on the motion to enforce the existing rule was 45 to 35, or nine less than the required two-thirds majority.

AMENDMENT OFFERED

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — Prohibition enforcement officers could board and search vessels within six marine leagues (eighteen geographical miles) off the coast of the United States under an amendment to the tariff bill proposed today by Senator Sterling, Republican, South Dakota, a member of the judiciary committee.

The amendment was ordered to lie on the table and cannot be considered until after the committee amendments to the measure have been disposed of.

The amendment is designed to aid the federal government in preventing the smuggling of liquor into this country and also to prevent ships from anchoring just outside the three mile limit and there disposing of "wet" cargoes.

K. P. LODGE TO HAVE FEW MEETINGS DURING SUMMER

Hot weather has caused a reduction in the number of meetings to be held by the Lima Lodge No. 91, Knights of Pythias, during the month of July.

Annual reports by the officers and the installation of new officers has been accomplished during the present week. The lodge is shown to be in an exceptional position with regard to finances and activities.

Business and the initiations into the different ranks of the order will be taken up at meetings to be held July 12, 19 and 26. Plans for the new home are progressing satisfactorily. It is stated by L. H. Rogers, chancellor commander.

Control and custody of her five children is asked in a petition for divorce filed in common pleas court Friday by Mrs. Flora C. Michael, wife of Ulysses S. Michael, mill-hand, 799 S. Union-st.

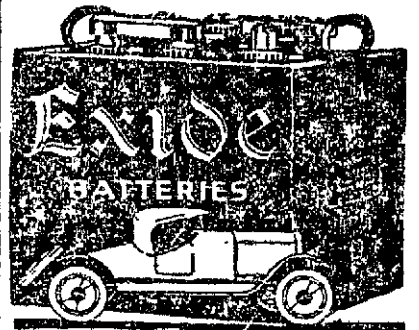

They were married in Cella, June 19, 1904. Mrs. Michael avers in her complaint that she was compelled to work to assist in the support of the family and that her husband contributed but little toward the household expense.

She asks temporary maintenance during pendency of her suit. Application was made for an order restraining Michael from selling or encumbering furniture owned in common.

The children are Margaret Ann, Charles, Robert, Ulysses and Lawrence.

"As soon as the architect has prepared a new estimate," he said, "we will advertise for bids. We will do so as soon as possible."

Craig was unable to say whether the estimate for the project will be higher or lower than the one made first.

All bids for the work were rejected when it was learned that they exceeded the estimate prepared by Frank Leech, architect. The estimated cost is $11,373.

SHORT SHAVINGS

Asa Osman, stamp clerk at the postoffice, gave out to a young woman who was lost in the Federal building. She asked to be directed to "The International Review Department." He called Assistant Postmaster Clarence Mumaugh, who came up with. "She means she wants the Internal Revenue Department."

George Wiseman, clerk, took a snap shot camera and went out to spend an afternoon with nature photographing the beauty spots near Lima. His only mistake was that he forgot to turn the trigger on the side of the camera, with the result that he came back with a fine collection of views on one plate.

Frank Pringle stopped in a drug store to purchase a glass. The proprietor played the records of eight new popular songs for a prospective woman buyer. "I like all eight," she said when he had finished "except the music," Pringle reports.

County Treasurer Harry Botkins tells about a friend who set his mind on the winning number in a punch-board. To make sure of getting it he bought all the chances left, after someone else had bought the first number.

"The first one won the prize," reports the sadly disillusioned man.

Charley Evans, waterworks superintendent, weighs about 260 pounds. He stepped off a street car and was hit from behind by a flivver coupe, a trivial states. "The automobile was stalled," but the collision didn't even shake the solid water department chief.

FLOATING LABORATORY WONDER SHIP OF RADIO

BY PAUL F. GODLEY

America's foremost radio authority, after several busy weeks studying America's radio problems, Senator Charles McNary of Indiana, soon will be moving home aboard his floating radio laboratory, the "Editha."

It is a veritable wonder ship. In one of the largest cabins on the main deck there is mounted on table, wall and special panel, almost every conceivable kind of modern radio equipment. There are radio transmitters, radio receivers, high speed recorders, selective devices for the reduction of atmospheric interference, radio direction finders, amplifiers, special transmitters for broadcasting, and highly sensitive measuring instruments which are essential for the analysis of modern radio problems.

These things, and many more, stand in the room and glances around—awed and well-nigh bewildered.

Projecting into the skylight stands a beautifully built loop of wire antenna. The antenna is connected to the long wave signals which are recorded automatically on a special ticker device at speeds approaching 200 words a minute.

Underneath the tables are dynamos of various patterns, with transformers, storage cells and all the apparatus in the "prime mover" class.

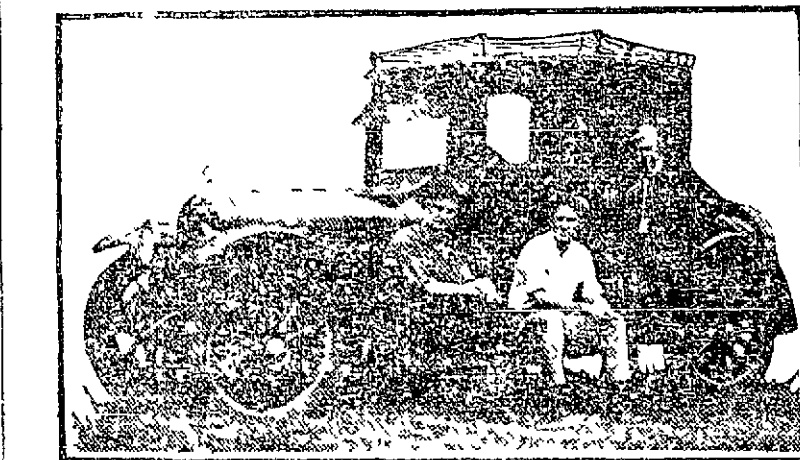

Here it is that the great inventor and his assistants pass many interesting and enlightening hours. Here it is that Marconi, the originator of it all, surveys the development of the art.

During Marconi's eight-fifth visit to the United States, he saw more and heard more of the development of radio than ever before in his life.

America's contributions—patent—(the more recent ones)—and the remarkable popularization of radio surprised him.

It was the finest tribute to his art that could be paid.

"DOC" IS CALLED BY RADIO

PATIENTS in Government Spinal hospital at Land, Okla., needn't yell for "Doc" very long if Dr. B. Hinson is handling the case. Dr. Hinson may be out in the country when his services are needed quickly at the hospital. A nurse broadcasts by radio and the instrument in Hinson's car picks up the call. Dr. Hinson is shown standing alongside his radio equipped car.

Alkali In Soap Bad For the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully. If you want to keep your hair looking its best, most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Multisifted coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Multisifted in a cup of glass with a little warm water is sufficient to cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply massage the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich creamy lather which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dust, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Multisifted coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Multisifted—Adv.

Sale of Farm Light Plant

Presents Opportunity for Dealers

The enthusiasm with which Westinghouse Light and Power Plants have been received by men both in the trade and out arises, we believe, from two sources—the appearance of the plant itself, and the good will Westinghouse has built by sound manufacturing policies and consistent advertising. To high grade men the exclusive agency for this plant in certain territories, with the sale of electric appliances and supplies, offers exceptional opportunity. The farm market has "come back." Westinghouse with a comprehensive merchandising plan is helping dealers establish themselves as farm electrical headquarters in their communities. If you are qualified to take on this proposition write at once to C. D. Jones, Westinghouse Electric & Mfg. Co., Union Bank Building, Pittsburgh, for an interview.
